MEDIA POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Media Information
Molly O'Mara and Andrew Melroe of Mizzou Athletics Strategic Communications will assist media members in their coverage of Mizzou football throughout the season, including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Questions can be directed to Molly O'Mara (momara@missouri.edu).

Practice
Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Eliah Drinkwitz.

Out of respect for the student-athletes and their families, there is to be no reporting or publicly speculating on injuries from practice until they are confirmed by head coach Eliah Drinkwitz or a communications staff representative. Violations of this policy may result in credential privileges being impacted.

Usage
Usage of imagery, audio and video captured at Mizzou Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes. Media members wishing to obtain Mizzou football video highlights, photos and logos should contact Molly O'Mara (momara@missouri.edu).

Facilities Access for Media Members
The team locker room, sports medicine areas and athletic performance areas are off limits to media members unless special arrangements have been made through Molly O'Mara.

Interviews
All interviews with Mizzou football student-athletes or staff members must be arranged through the Strategic Communications staff. Media members are asked to never contact a player or coach directly.

In general, student-athlete and staff interviews are conducted prior to or after practices in-person, via phone or via Zoom.

All game week interview requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance through the Strategic Communications staff. Interviews will be scheduled when student-athlete and staff schedules allow.

Post-game interviews will either be conducted on the playing field, outside the team locker room area, or at a formal press conference setting, depending on the facility.

Playing fields, team locker rooms and other team quarters are private team areas. Media members are not permitted in these areas unless accompanied by appropriate Mizzou Athletics personnel.

Credentials
Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Mizzou Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

The University of Missouri's decision to issue credentials to a media outlet for the purposes of covering a Mizzou Athletics event is determined by a variety of factors. They include the following:

- Space availability;
- Distribution/size of outlet: free, subscription, sale on newsstands, website traffic, etc.;
- Length of existence of the publication, amount of original copy generated, number of full-time employees of the publication and the journalistic experience of the reporter(s);
- Radio or TV station program format and audience size;
- Amount of coverage given to Mizzou through the season;
- Intention/ability to cover all 20 sports at Mizzou;
- Attendance at Mizzou media sessions, including Olympic sport opportunities;
- Professionalism, which includes but is not limited to conduct at games, press conferences, practices, on social media, etc.;
- Compliance with SEC media policy.

Football credential requests can be directed to Molly O'Mara (momara@missouri.edu) at least 72 hours prior to gameday.

The University of Missouri has the right to deny or revoke credentials under its own discretion.

NCAA INFRACTIONS

On January 31, 2019, the NCAA Committee on Infractions ("COI") released an Infractions Decision outlining unethical conduct (NCAA Bylaw 10.1), honesty and sportsmanship (NCAA Bylaw 10.01.1) and academic extra benefit (NCAA Bylaw 16.11.2.1) violations committed by a former part-time tutor at Mizzou in 2015-16. Upon learning of the issue in November, 2016, the University took immediate action by self-reporting the violations and partnering with the NCAA Enforcement staff in a joint investigation, and was cited for "exemplary cooperation" by the NCAA Enforcement Staff and COI. Students who received impermissible academic assistance from the tutor were declared ineligible and withheld from competition, per NCAA rules. The NCAA Enforcement Staff and the University of Missouri identified 12 former student-athletes who received impermissible academic assistance. Nine former student-athletes competed while ineligible; seven in football, one in baseball, and one in softball. The COI confirmed these facts. Missouri is on probation in those sports until January 31, 2022.

DR. MUN Y. CHOI

PRESIDENT, CHANCELLOR

Fifth Year | Illinois, '87

Mun Y. Choi serves as the 24th president of the University of Missouri — a dual role as chancellor of the University of Missouri and president of the four campus University of Missouri System. In this role, he oversees the academic, business, and financial aspects of the four universities, as well as a health care system and statewide extension program.

In partnership with the University of Missouri Board of Curators and university leadership, President Choi introduced a new collective vision for the system shortly after he arrived in Columbia: to advance the opportunities for success and well-being in Missouri, the nation and the world through transformative teaching, research, innovation, engagement, and inclusion.

This effort strengthened collaboration among the four universities and created a more efficient environment. He has worked tirelessly to transform the perception and value of higher education with the university community, alumni, legislators and Missourians.

MU recently celebrated the highest graduation rate in the university's history, a record 90% retention rate for first-year students returning their sophomore year and had 92% of MU students land a career outcome six months after graduation.

Choi has led efforts to strategically invest in UM System research, particularly through the statewide NextGen Precision Health initiative. The new, $250 million expansive facility anchoring this initiative is located on MU's campus and opened in October 2021. In addition to attracting top scientists, NextGen Precision Health has the potential to make key discoveries — with treatments for prostate, breast and pancreatic cancers, traumatic brain injuries and rare musculoskeletal diseases — as well as increase health care access for Missourians.

Building a climate that promotes diversity and strengthens inclusion is another key priority for Choi. He strongly and continually advocates for every member of the university community to take personal responsibility for addressing discrimination when witnessing it – no matter how subtle or unintentional. The burden of raising awareness and creating a more inclusive culture falls on everyone's shoulder.

Choi came to Missouri in 2017 after nine years at the University of Connecticut where he served as provost and executive vice president (2012-2017) and earlier as dean of engineering (2008-2012). His 25-year career in higher education also includes serving eight years as a department head of engineering at Drexel University and six years as an assistant and associate professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

A product of and passionate champion for public higher education, he earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois. He secured his master's and Ph.D. degrees in mechanical and aerospace engineering from Princeton University.

His parents brought their family to the United States from South Korea when Choi was nine-years-old. Their initial jobs making uniforms for Taekwondo students and teachers evolved into a highly successful family business. The Choi Brothers in Chicago, where he worked as a young man, is one of the country's largest suppliers of martial arts uniforms.

Choi is married to Suzanne Choi and together they have three children.

DR. PAMELA BRUZINA

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

21st Year | Wisconsin, '91

Dr. Pamela Bruzina was appointed Faculty Athletics Representative in May, 2017, for a five-year term. Previously, Dr. Bruzina served as an executive member of the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee (IAC) and was the IAC Compliance Subcommittee Chair and the Student-Athlete Welfare Subcommittee Chair. Her dedication to the welfare of our student-athletes was evident during her time on the IAC.

Dr. Bruzina has served in the Department of Nutrition and Exercise Phisiology since 2000. She has been an Associate Professor of Nutritional Sciences at MU since 2006, and has served as the department's Director of Graduate Studies, Nutritional Sciences, since 2010.

Dr. Bruzina's lab investigates the interactive effects of nutrition and physical activity on bone health. In particular, Dr. Bruzina's lab is studying the effects of energy balance on bone turnover during weight loss and weight maintenance in overweight individuals. In addition, Dr. Bruzina is studying the efficacy of exercise-based interventions to increase bone mineral density in osteopenic males.

She was a student-athlete at the University of Wisconsin, competing in track and cross country. She earned a bachelor's degree, with, distinction, in molecular biology, which provides her with firsthand knowledge of the demands placed on student athletes.

JIM STERK

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Sixth Year | Western Washington, '80

Jim Sterk was named Mizzou's 20th Director of Athletics on August 9, 2016, following highly successful tenures leading athletics programs at San Diego State, Washington State and Portland State.

Sterk's Win It Right vision for Mizzou Athletics is built upon the core values of Respect, Integrity, Gratitude, Humility and Together, and his first five years in Columbia have produced unprecedented academic, athletic and fund-raising success.

In the classroom, Mizzou student-athletes have posted a 3.00 grade-point average (GPA) or better for a record nine consecutive semesters, including a school-record 3.44 mark during the spring 2020 term, and breaking semester GPA marks six times. Twice on Sterk's watch Mizzou has posted a school-record Graduation Success Rate score of 91 (2018-19 and 2017-18), while it has earned 11 NCAA APR Public Recognition Awards. In the 2017 Federal Graduation Rates Survey, Mizzou's 72 percent mark ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and matched the highest mark in program history (2014-15).

Despite the immense challenges of playing during the COVID-19 pandemic, Mizzou saw a school-record 18 teams represented in the 2020-21 postseason en route to a 48th-place finish in the Learfield Director's Cup standings, its highest since 2017-18. Six MU teams finished 2020-21 among the nation's Top 25--Wrestling (T-7th at 2021 NCAA Championships), Women's Gymnastics (No. 14), Men's Swimming & Diving (16th at 2021 NCAA Championships), Softball (NCAA Super Regional), Women's Swimming & Diving (18th at 2021 NCAA Championships) and Volleyball (No. 25). All-told, 10 Mizzou teams earned 2020-21 Top 25 status at some point, including Football's appearance at No. 25 in the Dec. 7 CFP Top 25, Men's Indoor Track & Field at No. 24 (Jan. 25) and No. 25 (Feb. 8) in the USTFCCCA poll, Men's Outdoor Track at No. 23 (March 30) in the USTFCCCA ranking and Men's Basketball's 11-straight weeks in the AP listing, reaching a high of No. 10.

Mizzou's average Learfield Director's Cup finish during Sterk's five-year tenure has been 41.3 with three finishes inside the Top 50 and the two-best finishes ever recorded by Mizzou Athletics in the annual all-sports sweepstakes, 33rd-place showings in both 2016-17 and 2017-18. In the 23 years prior to his arrival, MU's average finish was 58.2 with 13 finishes inside the Top 50 and a high placement of 36th in 2008-09.

Eighteen of Mizzou's 20 programs have made at least one postseason appearance during his tenure, a period which has also produced seven individual NCAA championships and 11 conference team titles. A then-school-record 17 Tiger squads played in the 2017-18 postseason, which also marked only the second time in school history, and first since the 1981-82 academic year, that Mizzou played in a bowl game and both basketball programs reached the NCAA Tournament in the same academic year.

The new home of Mizzou Football, the $98M South End Zone Facility, opened to rave reviews in the summer of 2019, and ground is scheduled to be broken in the fall of 2021 on a new $34M indoor football practice facility that will be located southwest of Memorial Stadium. Both facilities have opened up additional space for Mizzou's other 19 programs, too. In addition, a multi-million dollar improvement to the men's and women's basketball team facilities at Mizzou Arena will be completed ahead of the 2021-22 season.

Three of the top five fund-raising years in department history have been registered under Sterk's direction, and in spite of the global pandemic, Mizzou broke the Tiger Scholarship Fund's productivity record for the second time in his tenure, as some $55.5M was raised during FY21 to smash the previous mark of $50.4M set in FY17 by more than $5M, his first on the job in Columbia. The record-breaking FY21 $55.5M total was more than 259% of TSF's established 2020-21 goal of $21.04M, and marked only the second time in TSF history that it broke the $50M threshold, and only the fourth time it topped the $40M mark.

Sterk joined the Mizzou family from San Diego State, where he enjoyed a highly-successful six-year run as Athletics Director that included arguably the most successful five-year period in Aztec history with 32 conference team championships from 2011-12 thru 2015-16, including a Mountain West Conference-leading 28 titles in that span, and the nation's fourth-highest combined winning percentage in football and men's basketball.

Named the 2015-16 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, Sterk went to SDSU from Washington State, where he had served as Athletics Director from 2000-10. Prior to his hiring at WSU, he was athletics director at Portland State from 1995 to 2000, where he led the Vikings transition from NCAA Division II to the Division I level.

The NCAA recognized WSU and Sterk in 2006 as the Division IA Athletic Directors' "Program of Excellence." He oversaw a period of unparalleled success at WSU with historic academic and athletic accomplishments during his time in Pullman.

In his last three years at WSU, 13 Cougar teams competed in NCAA Tournaments, including back-to-back trips by the Men's Basketball team (2007 and 2008), while Women's Rowing earned five NCAA bids, including a fourth-place finish in 2006, the highest finish ever by a WSU women's team in NCAA competition.

A 1980 Western Washington University graduate, Sterk earned four letters for the Vikings in football and one in basketball. He was credited with a school-record 164 tackles during the 1977 season, garnering first-team NAIA District I all-star accolades, and was inducted into the school's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2010.

He received his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University and served in administrative positions in athletics departments at North Carolina, Maine, Seattle Pacific and Tulane before becoming Athletics Director at Portland State.

Sterk and his wife, Debi, have three daughters: Ashley, Amy and Abby, and a granddaughter Kinsley Jane.

Eliah Drinkwitz
Head Coach • Second Year
Arkansas Tech, 2004

A winner at every stage of his coaching career, Eliah Drinkwitz – considered one of college football's top offensive minds – was introduced as Mizzou's 33rd head football coach in December of 2019, and despite all the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, led his 2020 Tigers to a 5-5 record against an All-SEC slate.

Drinkwitz, who took over the Tiger program following an impressive 2019 season at Appalachian State that saw the 20th-ranked Mountaineers win the Sun Belt Conference title en route to a 12-1 record, joined Warren Powers as the only head coaches in Mizzou history to earn a bowl bid in their first season patrolling the sidelines in Columbia. Drinkwitz joins Frank Broyles, Dan Devine and Powers as the only first-year Mizzou head coaches to reach five victories in year one of their Tiger tenures.

Picked to finish sixth in the SEC East Division by many preseason pundits and projected to win only two or three games at most against the All-SEC schedule, the Tigers split their 10-game league slate at 5-5 to finish third in the SEC East, with four of the losses coming at the hands of teams that were ranked at kickoff and three that finished at No. 1 (Alabama), No. 7 (Florida) and No. 8 (Georgia) in the final College Football Playoff ranking, while a fourth loss came in week two at then-No. 21 Tennessee. Mizzou's five SEC wins are the second-most ever behind its 7-1 mark that it posted en route to winning back-to-back SEC East crowns in 2013 and 2014.

Despite playing with less than 60 scholarship players for more than half of their games in 2020 and having just three games played on their original dates, the Tigers overcame an 0-2 start to win five of their final eight games down the stretch, a run that included:

• A goal-line stand in the closing minute to hold off defending National Champion LSU, 45-41.

• Snapping Kentucky's five-game series win streak with a 20-10 victory that wasn't nearly as close as the final score indicated.

• Mizzou's first win in Columbia East since 2014, a 17-10 decision at South Carolina and a thrilling come-from-behind 50-48 walk-off victory over Arkansas, its fifth-straight in the series.

• An appearance at No. 25 in the College Football Playoff rankings Dec. 7, only the third season the program has appeared in the CFP's seven-year run.

Of the SEC's four new head coaches to begin work in the nation's toughest conference in 2020, Drinkwitz's 5-5 regular-season record was the league's best, ahead of Ole Miss' Lane Kiffin (4-5), Mississippi State's Mike Leach (3-7) and Arkansas' Sam Pittman (3-7). In addition, Drinkwitz and his staff signed a top-25 recruiting class currently ranked No. 20 by Rivals.com (highest ranking in program history) to help secure a promising future for the storied Mizzou program.

Drinkwitz's offensive acumen has been a key element in his team's winning five conference championships while compiling a perfect 8-0 bowl game record in 11 seasons at the FBS level. The combined record of his teams from 2010-20 is 103-39 overall (.725), including a 62-27 conference mark (.687).

The 2019 campaign saw Drinkwitz turn in one of the most impressive FBS head coaching debut seasons ever. His Mountaineers set a Sun Belt record with their 12 wins, and also set the mark for the best regular season in conference history (11-1). They claimed the Sun Belt Championship with a 45-38 win against Louisiana on Dec. 7.

Also in 2019, App State became the first-ever Sun Belt program to earn a top 20 ranking in the Associated Press poll, while also becoming the first team in league history to receive an in-season ranking in the College Football Playoff poll. Drinkwitz's team also made history in 2019 with a pair of Power 5 road wins (at bowl-eligible North Carolina, and later at South Carolina) – making it the first-ever Sun Belt team to register two Power 5 wins in a season. In all, the Mountaineers claimed an FBS-best six road wins en route to becoming the first-ever 12-win team among North Carolina's FBS members.

For his efforts, Drinkwitz was named a finalist for the 2019 Eddie Robinson Award, a prestigious award which goes annually to the nation's top coach. He was also named the North Carolina Coach of the Year by the North State Journal.

App State proved to be one of the nation's most balanced teams in 2019, thanks in large part to an efficient offense that ranked ninth nationally in scoring (39.4 points per game), coupled with a stingy defense that ranked 22nd nationally in points allowed (20.2 ppg). The Mountaineers also excelled in the critical turnover category, ranking eighth nationally in 2019 with a plus-12 turnover margin. App State junior running back Darrynton Evans was named the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year, after rushing for 1,323 yards and 17 touchdowns.

Prior to App State, Drinkwitz spent three years as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for record-setting NC State teams (2016-18), after excelling in a similar role at Boise State for two years (2014-15), where the Broncos won the Mountain West title in 2014 and finished 12-2 and ranked 16th nationally. In 2015, Drinkwitz was promoted to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and he helped the Bronco offense rank in the top 15 nationally in points (39.1) and yards (501.3) per game.

Before Boise, Drinkwitz was a key figure in back-to-back Sun Belt Championships in 2012-13 as running backs coach and co-offensive coordinator at Arkansas State. He got his first taste at the FBS level in the Southeastern Conference, as he served as a quality control assistant at Auburn for the 2010-11 seasons. The Tigers won the SEC in 2010, and went on to the BCS Championship that season with a perfect 14-0 record.

Following a 7-6 season in 2016 at NC State, Drinkwitz helped the Wolfpack to consecutive nine-win seasons (2017-18) for the first time since 1991-92. With an average of 35.6 points per game under his direction in 2018, NC State had a 1,000-yard rusher for the third-straight year, two 1,000-yard receivers and a quarterback with nearly 4,000 passing yards. The Wolfpack made a steady rise from 63rd nationally in total offense in his first season in 2016 to 25th in 2017 and 16th in 2018. He was a Broyles Award nominee as one of the nation's top assistant coaches in his final year with the Wolfpack.

The Wolfpack offense had six players selected in the 2018 and 2019 NFL Drafts combined, including record-setting quarterback Ryan Finley, who was a fourth-round selection in 2019 by the Cincinnati Bengals.

In his six seasons as an offensive coordinator and head coach, Drinkwitz has produced five 1,000-yard rushers, four 3,000-yard passers and four 1,000-yard receivers. Three of those years (2015, 2017, 2018) his offenses produced at least one in each category.

Drinkwitz, 38, graduated magna cum laude and was the student body president at Arkansas Tech (bachelor's, education) before beginning his coaching career at the prep level in his hometown of Alma, Ark., in 2005. He and his wife, Lindsey (Sivils), have four daughters: Addison, Emerson, Ella and Parker Lynn.

Charlie Harbison
Associate Head Coach
Defensive Backs • Second Year
Gardner-Webb, 1995

Charlie Harbison was head coach Eliah Drinkwitz's first hire for his new Mizzou staff in December, 2019. Harbison serves as Associate Head Coach while overseeing the defensive backs.

Harbison is a veteran defensive coach with 30 years of collegiate experience under his belt, including 14 seasons in the Southeastern Conference with five different programs.

Two members of the 2020 Tiger secondary heard their names called in the 2021 NFL Draft. In the fourth round, Tyree Gillespie was selected by the Las Vegas Raiders with the 38th pick in the round and the 143rd overall selection. In the sixth round, Joshuah Bledsoe was selected by the New England Patriots with the fourth pick in the round and the 188th overall selection.

Gillespie and Bledsoe combined for 87 tackles, 4.0 tackles for loss and 10 passes broken up in 2020.

Harbison spent the 2019 season with Drinkwitz as Associate Head Coach/Cornerbacks at Appalachian State, where the Mountaineers won the Sun Belt Conference Championship with a 12-1 record and earned a No. 20 ranking in the final regular-season polls.

App State's defense was a key reason for its 2019 title run, as the Mountaineers ranked in the top 30 nationally in numerous major statistical categories, including: third down defense (14th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 31.4%), pass efficiency defense (18th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 114.60), interceptions (19th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 13), scoring defense (22nd NCAA/2nd Sun Belt – 20.2 avg.) and total defense (26th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 335.9 avg.).

Twice named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals (2005, 2010), Harbison has been part of teams that have qualified for six conference championship games and 20 bowl appearances, including the BCS National Championship Game, two Orange Bowls, two Sugar Bowls and two Cotton Bowls.

He's spent 20+ years combined in the SEC and Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) with stops at Alabama, Auburn, Clemson, LSU and Mississippi State. He spent the 2018 season as defensive backs coach for the Arizona Cardinals - with current Mizzou defensive coordinator Steve Wilks - before joining Drinkwitz's staff at App State in 2019. At Arizona, Harbison coached Pro Bowler Patrick Peterson as the Cardinals' defense was the league's fourth-best in pass defense, allowing 203.9 yards per game.

Harbison spent three seasons (2015-17) as co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Louisiana, and, prior to that, was on staff for two seasons (2013-14) at Auburn as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach, helping the Tigers win the 2013 SEC Championship and advance to the BCS title game. In 2013, Auburn had the second-biggest turnaround in college football history at the time, with an eight-game improvement from the year before.

In all, Harbison has been on coaching staffs that have won five conference championships, while appearing in six conference championship games overall. In addition to the 2019 Sun Belt title game victory, Harbison was part of SEC Championship teams in 1999 (Alabama), 2001 (LSU) and 2013 (Auburn), while also being on the winning side of the 2011 ACC title game with Clemson.

A native of Shelby, N.C., and graduate of Crest High School, Harbison's second coaching stint at Clemson (2009-12), saw the Tigers to back-to-back 10-win seasons, the 2011 ACC Championship (Clemson's first conference title in 20 years) and an Orange Bowl appearance.

At Clemson, he tutored cornerback Coty Sensabaugh, who had 14 passes defended in 2011 and was drafted by the Tennessee Titans. Harbison helped Clemson to a top-25 ranking and the ACC Atlantic Division title in 2009. That season, Clemson had 21 interceptions, the fifth-most in school history and tied for fifth-most in the nation, and finished seventh in the nation in pass defense.

Before going to Clemson, he spent two seasons at Mississippi State (2007-08), the second of which he worked as defensive coordinator while also coaching safeties. Harbison had two different tenures as an assistant at Alabama (1998-2000, 2003-06), where he coached the Crimson Tide's defensive backs in his initial stay and helped Alabama to the 1999 SEC Championship and appearances in the 1998 Music City Bowl and the 2000 Orange Bowl. Two of his pupils, Fernando Bryant (1999) and Tony Dixon (2000), were taken in the first and second rounds of the NFL Draft, respectively. In his second stint with the Crimson Tide, Harbison worked with the wide receivers and helped Alabama to three bowl appearances.

Between the Alabama assignments, Harbison coached defensive backs at LSU (2001-02) under head coach Nick Saban and helped the Tigers win the 2001 SEC Championship and play in the 2002 Sugar Bowl and 2003 Cotton Bowl. Corey Webster, who played his first season as a cornerback under Harbison, finished second on the school's all-time career interceptions list.

He served as defensive backs coach in his first stop at Clemson (1995-97) as the Tigers played in three consecutive bowl games. At Clemson, Harbison mentored 2018 Hall of Fame inductee and nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins, helping him earn All-America honors while also leading the ACC in interceptions in 1995.

Harbison also coached the secondary at UTEP (1994) and twice worked at his alma mater, Gardner-Webb, coaching wide receivers (1992-93) and defensive backs (1984-85). In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Harbison worked in both the Arena Football League as defensive coordinator with the Charlotte Rage (1993), and in the World League of American Football with the Raleigh-Durham Skyhawks in 1991 as defensive backs coach.

A standout defensive back at Gardner-Webb (1978-81) who had 11 career interceptions, Harbison signed with the Buffalo Bills as a rookie free agent in 1982 before spending two years (1983-84) with the USFL's Boston/New Orleans Breakers.

He graduated from Gardner-Webb with a degree in business administration in 1995. Harbison and his wife, Tammy, have three sons, Charlie, Stedman and Masai, and a daughter, Msiba.

Marcus Johnson

Assistant Head Coach
Run Game Coord. • Offensive Line
Second Year • Ole Miss, 2004

Marcus Johnson joined Mizzou's staff in January, 2020 as offensive line coach. In May, 2021, head coach Eliah Drinkwitz promoted Johnson to Assistant Head Coach and Run Game Coordinator while continuing to oversee the offensive line.

In 2020, Mizzou's offense rushed for 135.2 yards per game and 21 touchdowns. In the air, the Tigers averaged 266.8 yards per game with nine scores. The offensive line unit ranked fourth in the Southeastern Conference (behind Texas A&M, Alabama and Kentucky) and 30th nationally in sacks per game with 1.60.

Senior running back Larry Rountree III ended the season ranked fourth among active FBS rushers with 972 yards and 15 scores. Senior right tackle Larry Borom started eight games for the Tigers in 2020 and was a fifth-round pick in the 2021 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. He became Mizzou's first offensive lineman drafted since 2016.

Johnson arrived in Columbia after spending four seasons coaching the offensive lines at Mississippi State (2018-19) and Duke (2016-17).

During his time in Starkville, the Bulldogs won 14 games overall, and played in the 2018 Outback Bowl and the 2019 Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl. His offensive line paved the way for first-team All-SEC running back Kylin Hill to rank second in the league and 16th nationally in 2019 with 1,350 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns, while the Bulldogs' rushing attack ranked third in the SEC and 21st nationally, averaging 220.6 yards per game.

Johnson's first season at MSU was also a successful one as his line helped the offense rank second in the SEC in both rushing yards per game (223.6) and yards per rush (5.7). Anchored by center Elgton Jenkins, the 44th overall pick by Green Bay in the 2019 NFL Draft, the offensive line helped State rush for 300 or more yards in an SEC-best four games. Jenkins earned first-team All-America honors from The Athletic and fourth-team honors from Phil Steele.

Also under Johnson's guidance, Deion Calhoun had a standout senior season in 2018, earning second-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches. Calhoun allowed only two sacks over 356 pass-blocking snaps, according to PFF, and signed with Miami as an undrafted free agent.

Johnson began his coaching career at Duke for his college coach David Cutcliffe, serving various roles over a seven-year period (2011-17) that saw the Blue Devils make five bowl appearances. Duke had not appeared in a bowl game since 1995.

After beginning at Duke as an assistant strength and conditioning coach (2011-12), he broke into the coaching side in 2013 as an offensive quality control assistant. That year, Duke finished 10-4, winning the ACC's Coastal Division and finishing as the first Blue Devil team in 52 years to end a season ranked in the Associated Press poll (No. 23 final ranking).

Johnson spent three years in the quality control role at Duke before being promoted to offensive line coach for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. During the 2017 campaign, Johnson worked with third-team All-ACC center Austin Davis, who was also one of four team-elected captains.

Johnson's offensive line opened holes for Duke to have two 200-200 performances as the Blue Devils reached the Quick Lane Bowl. Off the field, Johnson oversaw the selection of offensive tackle Gabe Brandner to the CoSIDA Academic All-District first team and Allstate AFCA Good Works Team as well as being a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation William V. Campbell Trophy and Wuerffel Award. In 2016, Johnson oversaw an offensive front that allowed time and space for four 200-200 performances during the season.

During Johnson's three campaigns with the Blue Devil offense in the capacity of quality control, Duke won 27 games, captured the 2013 ACC Coastal Division championship and appeared in three bowl games. Working alongside veteran line coach John Latina, Johnson helped guide seven All-ACC picks including Casey Blaser, Takoby Cofield, Dave Harding, Lucas Patrick, Perry Simmons, Matt Skura and Laken Tomlinson.

Duke went 8-5 with a victory over Indiana in the 2015 New Era Pinstripe Bowl, and the Blue Devils joined Clemson and North Carolina as the only three squads to rank among the conference's top five in rushing offense, passing offense, total offense and scoring offense. Blaser, Patrick and Skura each garnered All-ACC honors.

In 2013, Duke ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (fifth; 32.8 avg.), total offense (fourth; 426.1 avg.), rushing offense (fifth; 178.0 avg.) and passing offense (sixth; 248.1 avg.).

On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the Blue Devils set a school record for total points (459) while becoming the first team in school history to post at least 25 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing touchdowns in the same season.

A standout offensive lineman in his playing days at Ole Miss (2001-04), Johnson earned second-team All-SEC honors as a senior co-captain under Cutcliffe. He helped the Rebels to 28 wins over four years and a pair of bowl game appearances. After earning second-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press as a senior, Johnson represented Ole Miss at the 2004 Senior Bowl.

He was a second-round pick in the 2005 NFL Draft by Minnesota, and spent four seasons (2005-08) there, helping the Vikings to a division title and playoff berth in 2008. After spending the 2009 campaign with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he closed his playing career with the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Johnson graduated from Ole Miss in 2004 with a degree in criminal justice while minoring in sociology. He has one daughter, London. He is married to Veullana Johnson.

Steve Wilks
Defensive Coordinator
First Year
Appalachian State, 1991

Steve Wilks joined the Mizzou staff as defensive coordinator in January, 2021. Wilks returns to the college ranks after spending 14 seasons in the NFL, including a one-year-stint as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals in 2018. Wilks was a part of six teams that reached the NFL Playoffs, including Super Bowl appearances with the Chicago Bears (Super Bowl XLI) and Carolina Panthers (Super Bowl L). During his 14 seasons in the NFL, five players earned All-Pro recognition under his guidance.

Wilks served as the defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns in 2019, where the Browns' passing defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing just 216.9 yards per game. Prior to Cleveland, Wilks spent the 2018 season as the head coach of the Arizona Cardinals where once again, his team's pass defense thrived. The 2018 Cardinals ranked fourth in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (210.0) as he helped mentor Patrick Peterson to a first-team All-Pro selection. Current Mizzou Associate Head Coach Charlie Harbison coached the Cardinals' defensive backs in 2018 under Wilks.

Before his stints in the desert and at Cleveland, Wilks spent six seasons with the Carolina Panthers (2012-17), where he served as the team's defensive backs coach (2012-16) and defensive coordinator (2017). He also held the role of Assistant Head Coach for three seasons (2015-17). Coaching in his hometown, the Charlotte, N.C., native helped lead the Panthers to four playoff appearances in five seasons (2013, 2014, 2015, 2017) and an appearance in Super Bowl L following the 2015 season. The Panthers' defense finished in the NFL's top 10 in total defense in five of Wilks' six seasons on staff, including finishing second in 2013 and seventh in 2017, his lone season as Defensive Coordinator.

Wilks led the Panthers' defensive backs during the team's magical 2015 season, as Carolina went 15-1 and made the franchise's second Super Bowl appearance following a 49-15 rout of the Arizona Cardinals in the NFC Championship Game. Wilks helped coach Josh Norman to an first-team All-Pro selection that season after the Panthers ranked sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and 11th in passing yards per game (234.5). In 2017, Wilks was elevated to defensive coordinator and oversaw an improvement from 21st to seventh in total defense (317.1 ypg) for the Panthers. His 2017 defense also ranked third in rush defense (88.1 ypg) and 10th in scoring defense (20.4), while linebacker Luke Kuechly and defensive tackle Kawann Short earned All-Pro recognition following the season.

Prior to Carolina, Wilks spent three seasons with the San Diego Chargers (2009-11) and three seasons with the Chicago Bears (2006-08), coaching the defensive backs at both stops. In San Diego, the Chargers led the NFL in total defense (271.6 ypg) and pass defense (177.8 ypg), while he helped mentor Eric Weddle to back-to-back All-Pro selections, earning first-team honors in 2011 and second-team honors in 2012. In Chicago, Wilks helped coach the Bears to an appearance in Super Bowl XLI after the 2006 season, his first in the NFL. The Bears earned top seed in the NFC Playoffs after a 13-3 record in 2006 and were led by a stout defense that ranked as the NFL's third-best.

Prior to his 14 years in the NFL, Wilks spent 11 seasons coaching at eight schools at the collegiate level, including a one-year stint as a head coach at Savannah State (1999), and at Power 5 programs Notre Dame (2004) and Washington (2005), where he coached the defensive backs. Wilks served as the Defensive Coordinator at Johnson C. Smith (1995-96), Savannah State (1997-98) and East Tennessee State (2002), and coached the defensive backs at Illinois State (2000), Appalachian State (2001) and Bowling Green (2003).

Wilks was a defensive back at Appalachian State from 1987-91 where helped the Mountaineers capture the Southern Conference Championship in 1987 and 1991. He finished his collegiate career with 103 tackles, four interceptions and four blocked kicks. He attended training camp with the Seattle Seahawks in 1992 and played one season with the Charlotte Rage of the Arena Football League in 1993, playing defensive back and wide receiver.

Wilks earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Appalachian State in 1991. He and his wife, Marcia, have two daughters, Marissa and Melanni, and a son, Steven James.

Erik Link
Special Teams Coordinator
Second Year
Drake, 2003

A 15+-year coaching veteran, Erik Link joined the Mizzou staff in December, 2019 as Special Teams Coordinator.

In 2020, kicker Harrison Mevis was named to The Athletic's Freshman All-America Team and to the league coaches' All-SEC Freshman Team. He was successful on 17-of-20 field goals for the Tigers and a perfect 28-of-28 on PATs. He connected on 3-of-4 kicks from 50+ yards and his 52-yard field goal vs. LSU (Oct. 10) was the longest by a Mizzou freshman in program history.

Mevis matched a school record for a kicker with five field goals against Arkansas (Dec. 5), the most by any kicker nationally, and reset the school's record of scoring by a kicker with 20 of Mizzou's 50 points in a 50-48 win over the Razorbacks. Included in those five field goals was a walk-off, game-winning 32-yarder to send Mizzou to its fifth straight win over Arkansas and netted Mevis SEC Special Teams Player of the Week honors.

Link's App State special teams units proved to be among the nation's best in 2019, playing a crucial role in the 20th-ranked Mountaineers' 12-1 season that culminated with a Sun Belt Championship Game victory.

Under Link's guidance, Appalachian State ranked in the nation's top 30 in numerous special teams categories, including a national-best seven blocked kicks (five kicks/two punts), without allowing a single blocked kick or punt. The 2019 Mountaineers also ranked in the following special teams categories: punt return coverage (15th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 3.65 avg.), kickoff returns (16th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 24.4 avg.) and kickoff return coverage (28th NCAA/3rd Sun Belt – 18.91 avg.).

Additionally, Link's punting and punt return units weren't far off those lofty standards, as App State finished the 2019 season ranked 34th nationally (third in the Sun Belt) in net punting (39.69 avg.) and 41st nationally (fourth in the Sun Belt) in punt returns (9.82 avg.).

Mizzou is the third school at which Link and Drinkwitz have coached together. Their first pairing came as quality control assistants on an Auburn staff that helped the Tigers win a 2010 national title with a 14-0 record. Link later contributed to another BCS Championship Game appearance as a special teams/offensive analyst with Auburn in 2013. In those two SEC title seasons, plus a stint as Montana State's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach from 2011-12, Link was part of four consecutive conference championships.

Prior to App State, Link spent the 2018 season as the special teams coordinator for Louisiana Tech, which won the SoFi Hawaii Bowl to cap an eight-win season in which the Bulldogs blocked four kicks to rank 10th nationally.

He spent two seasons back in his hometown of Des Moines, Iowa, as the head coach and assistant athletics director at Roosevelt High School, which went winless the season before his 2016 arrival but won the 2017 city championship.

Montana State reached the FCS quarterfinals in 2011 and 2012, while Auburn followed its BCS title game appearance in 2013 with an Outback Bowl appearance in 2014 and a Birmingham Bowl win in 2015.

From 2006-08, Link was a member of Iowa State's staff in a variety of roles, including offensive line graduate assistant (2006), assistant director of football operations (2007-08) and director of high school relations (2007-08). Following his time with the Cyclones, Link was a teacher and coach at Texas' Keller High School in 2009.

Link began his collegiate coaching career in 2004 as a defensive graduate assistant at Drake. In 2005, Link moved into the role of defensive line coach for Drake a year before joining the Iowa State staff. Link made his coaching debut at North High School in Des Moines in 2003, when he served as an assistant coach on the offensive line.

Link is a 2003 Drake graduate with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. He was a member of the Bulldogs' offensive line from 1999-2002 and helped lead them to the 2000 Pioneer Football League Championship while earning a spot on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll four-straight years. He earned his master's degree in public administration in executive leadership from Drake in 2008.

Link and his wife, Jill, have one daughter, Evelyn.

Casey Woods
Recruiting Coordinator
Tight Ends • Second Year
Tennessee, 2006

The 2021 season marks Casey Woods' second with the Tigers, overseeing the tight ends and serving as recruiting coordinator.

Woods, who returns six tight ends for 2021, led the charge in signing a 2021 recruiting class currently ranked No. 20 by Rivals.com - the highest ranking in program history.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Woods spent three seasons as UAB's tight ends coach, run game coordinator and recruiting coordinator. Woods - the son of longtime college coach Sparky Woods - joined the UAB staff when the football program was reestablished for the 2017 season.

The Blazers set 21 school records in 2018, including total points (418), total yards (5,680), rushing yards (2,818), total touchdowns (53), rushing touchdowns (32), single game total yards (668 vs. UTSA) and single game rushing yards (419 vs. UTSA). UAB posted an 11-3 record and won the schools' first Conference USA title and bowl games.

Woods' tight ends unit was led by co-starters Logan Scott and Hayden Pittman, who did most of their damage in the run game as key additional blockers to Spencer Brown, who ran for 1,227 yards and a school-record 16 touchdowns.

Woods spent three years as Auburn's Director of Player Personnel from 2013-15. In those seasons, the Tigers amassed a record of 27-13, which included a run to the national title game in 2013 and a 12-2 overall record.

In 2012, Woods coached the wide receivers and served as the recruiting coordinator for Arkansas State. The Red Wolves were 10-3 in Woods' lone season and won their final eight games, including a 17-13 victory over No. 25 Kent State in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

From 2009-11, Woods was an offensive quality control assistant at Auburn. He was a member of the 2010 national championship team as Auburn finished the season 14-0 and defeated Oregon 22-19 in the Fiesta Bowl to claim the title.

Woods was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Tennessee, in 2008. He played in 41 games for the Vols from 2003-07 as a wide receiver and holder, and he served as a team captain during his senior year in 2007. In his five seasons in Knoxville, Tennessee went 44-20 overall and had three 10-win seasons. An outstanding student, Woods was a four-time Academic All-SEC selection.

Woods is a native of Starkville, Miss., and played his high school ball at Starkville Academy. He earned his undergraduate degree in 2006 and his master's degree in 2008, both from the University of Tennessee. He and his wife Lauren have three children: Waverly Grace, Sawyer Davis and Adaline Leigh.

Aaron Fletcher
Secondary • First Year
Texas A&M - Commerce, 2003

Aaron Fletcher joined the Mizzou staff as assistant coach working with the secondary in February, 2021. Fletcher has spent the last 15 years coaching at the collegiate and high school levels, including the last six seasons at Tulsa.

The Golden Hurricane pass defense thrived under Fletcher's guidance, as they routinely ranked near the top of the American Athletic Conference (AAC), including a top 10 national pass defense ranking at the end of the 2018 season. Now members of the Mizzou program - then at Tulsa - defensive back Allie Green IV was a Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist and defensive back Akayleb Evans was a member of the Wuerffel Trophy Watch List.

Fletcher helped lead Tulsa to three bowl game appearances between 2015-20, including a 55-10 2016 Miami Beach Bowl game victory over Central Michigan. The Golden Hurricane pass defense ranked in the top five of the AAC the past three seasons, including a conference-leading and eighth-best national mark of 174.6 yards per game in 2018.

He coached and mentored Reggie Robinson II to first-team 2019 All-AAC honors after recording four interceptions and a conference-leading 17 PBUs. Robinson became Tulsa's first NFL Draft pick in 10 years and its highest in 15 years when the Dallas Cowboys selected him with a fourth-round selection in 2020.

Fletcher also worked with Tulsa's special teams units, and helped the block unit to an NCAA Top-15 final ranking in blocked kicks in both 2018 (No. 10) and 2019 (No. 14).

At UT, Fletcher developed and executed 'The Legacy of Black Wall Street', an initiative to bring awareness to the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre and celebrate black business owners during that time, as well as survivors, educators and university and athletics staff that broke the color barrier and made history. Each season, Tulsa's second home game is dedicated to 'The Legacy of Black Wall Street' with the Legacy and Leadership Award presented in honor of Tulsa's first Senior Administrator, Dr. Derrick Gragg.

Prior to joining the Tulsa staff, Fletcher spent three seasons (2012-14) at Houston Baptist University (FCS) where he helped start the Huskies' football program from scratch. He coached Prince Sam to the program's first-ever all-conference selection in 2014. In addition to leading the team's secondary, Fletcher was crucial to the recruiting efforts while in Houston, helping land the school's first-ever top 100 recruit.

Before moving into the collegiate ranks, Fletcher coached at three Dallas-area high schools from 2006 through 2011, including his most recent stop as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at David W. Carter High School from 2011-12. While there, he coordinated one of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex's top defenses.

Fletcher also spent time at DeSoto and Lancaster High Schools as defensive pass game coordinator and was regarded as one of the nation's top developers of high school defensive backs. In 2008, Fletcher's secondary corps for the Lancaster Tigers earned the billing of the nation's best secondary by several publications, coaching two All-Americans and four all-state selections. Four of his players were named Texas' Top 100 recruits in 2008.

Fletcher began his coaching career in 2001 as an assistant coach at Lyndon B. Johnson High School in Austin. Notable players coached by Fletcher include Philadelphia Eagles cornerback Jalen Mills (DeSoto), former Tennessee Titans and Chicago Bears defensive back Demontre Hurst (Lancaster) and Chris Houston (LBJ), a second-round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, who also played for the Detroit Lions.

Fletcher attended Ranger Junior College for two years (1995-96), and as a cornerback earned team defensive MVP honors and all-conference accolades. He then moved to Texas A&M - Commerce and started at cornerback under current Mizzou assistant Curtis Luper. In 1999, Fletcher was rated as one of the top 20 defensive secondary draft-eligible prospects and participated in the NFL Pre-Draft Camp. He earned his degree in health education from Texas A&M - Commerce in 2003.

Fletcher played in the National Indoor Football League for the Austin Knights in 2001 and the Arena Football League with the Laredo Law Football Club in 2004.

An active member of his community, Fletcher founded "3 and Out Productions" to enhance community and student relationships through sports camps and clinics in East Austin. Throughout his career, Fletcher has also been involved with Boys and Girls Club, served as youth minister at Disciples of Faith in Commerce and was an active member of The Potter's House, a men's ministry in Dallas.

A native of Austin, Texas, Fletcher and his wife, Tanzania, have two daughters - Anaiya and Taylor - and one son, Aaron, Jr.

Jethro Franklin
Defensive Line • First Year
Fresno State, 1988

Jethro Franklin joined the Mizzou staff as defensive line coach in January, 2021. With 29 years of coaching experience total - 16 in college football and 13 in the NFL - his most recent stops include the Oakland Raiders (2015-17) and Seattle Seahawks (2018-19). Franklin has helped lead three NFL teams to seven playoff appearances and three FBS teams to seven bowl game appearances in his illustrious coaching career.

Franklin most recently served as the assistant defensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks from 2018-19, where he mentored Jadeveon Clowney and helped lead the team to back-to-back NFL Playoff appearances in his two seasons on staff. Prior to Seattle, Franklin spent three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Oakland Raiders, where he mentored two of the NFL's best young pass rushers, Khalil Mack and Bruce Irvin. Mack earned back-to-back NFL All-Pro honors in 2015 and 2016 and racked up 36.5 sacks in three seasons under Franklin's guidance.

Franklin spent the 2006 season as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers defensive line coach and the 2007 and 2008 campaigns with the Houston Texans. He first broke into the NFL with the Green Bay Packers, where he spent five seasons as the team's defensive line coach (2000-04). In Green Bay, Franklin helped lead the Packers to three NFC North Division titles (2002-04) and four consecutive playoff appearances (2001-04). Notable NFL stars under Franklin's direction during these stops include Kabeer Gbaja-Biamila (Green Bay) and Mario Williams (Houston).

In between his second and third stints in the NFL, the San Jose, Calif., native spent six seasons at the college level with USC (2009), Temple (2010) and Miami (2011-14). Franklin was a part of three teams that reached bowl games during this six-year stint as the Trojans reached the 2009 Emerald Bowl, and the Hurricanes played in the 2013 Russell Athletic and 2014 Independence Bowls.

He first joined the USC football program in 2005 where he helped lead the team to a Pac-10 Championship and a National Championship appearance in the Rose Bowl against Texas, a game often considered as the greatest NCAA college football game ever played.

Franklin spent the 1999 season as the interim defensive line coach at UCLA after spending eight seasons at his alma mater,

Fresno State, from 1991-98. In Fresno, the Bulldogs made three bowl game appearances during his tenure, advancing to the 1991 California, 1992 Freedom and 1993 Aloha Bowls.

Franklin's playing career began at San Jose City College (1984-85) where he was named a 1985 NJCAA All-American. He then moved on to Fresno State (1986-87), where he set the school record for sacks (19.5) in 1986 and was named the 1987 Pacific Coast Conference Player of the Year.

After being drafted by the Houston Oilers in 1988, he spent the 1989 season playing defensive line for the Seattle Seahawks. He then was the No. 1 draft choice of the San Antonio Rough Riders of the World League of American Football in 1991, but instead opted to begin his coaching career.

Franklin graduated from Fresno State with a degree in criminology in 1988. He and his wife, Cherise, have a son, Khalil and a daughter, Takara.

Bush Hamdan

Wide Receivers • Quarterbacks
Second Year • Boise State, 2008

Bush Hamdan joined the Mizzou football staff, to coach the receivers and quarterbacks, in January, 2020. He brings more than 10 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience from coast-to-coast. In 2020, Hamdan's receivers totaled 3,259 total yards, 271.6 yards per game and 25 scores.

Hamdan arrived in Columbia after spending four seasons on very successful teams at the University of Washington, with a one-year stint with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons in the middle. In 2018 and 2019, he served as the Huskies' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for head coach Chris Petersen, who he was a quarterback for in his playing days at Boise State (2004-08).

He first started working on Petersen's Washington staff in 2015 as an offensive quality control assistant, and was promoted the following season to wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator. The Huskies won a pair of Pac-12 Conference Championships during his tenure in Seattle (2016, 2018) and reached the 2016 College Football Playoff.

The Huskies' 2018 offense compiled 3,337 passing yards, the fourth-highest total in UW history. In terms of total offense, UW's 5,805 yards were third-most ever at the school, while the 414.6 yards per game ranked sixth in program history. The 2018 squad also posted top-10 marks in total first downs (310, 4th), first downs by rushing (130, tie-6th) and first downs by passing (156, 2nd).

During the 2016 season, Hamdan coached the prolific wideout duo of John Ross III and Dante Pettis, who set a Pac-12 record with a combined 32 receiving touchdowns. Ross earned All-America honors and later was taken as the No. 9 overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft, while Pettis went in the second round.

In Hamdan's lone season in Atlanta, the Falcons went 10-6 and reached the divisional round of the NFL Playoffs after a 26-13 wildcard game win at Los Angeles. He coached quarterback Matt Ryan, who finished sixth in the league in passing that year, with 4,095 yards.

Hamdan spent the 2014 season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Davidson, where he coached starting quarterback J.P. Douglast to a 66-percent completion percentage and a 130.41 pass efficiency rating. Wide receiver William Morris caught 98 passes for 1,224 yards, a Davidson record.

The Wildcats had five players earn postseason honors from the Pioneer Football League, including running back Jeffrey Keil, the offensive freshman of the year. In 2014, Davidson increased its scoring average by nearly 10 points from the previous year and its total offense average by 40 yards per game.

Prior to his time at Davidson, he held the title of co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State, helping to lead the Red Wolves to the 2013 Sun Belt Championship and a berth in the GoDaddy.com Bowl, a 23-20 win over Ball State. Starting signal caller Adam Kennedy, a transfer from Utah State recruited by Hamdan, completed 69.2 percent of his 315 attempts for 2,363 yards and a 139.93 efficiency rating while a balanced offensive attack averaged 407.8 yards per game (205.7 by rush and 202.1 by pass).

In 2012, Hamdan helped coach Florida to an 11-2 record and a berth in the Sugar Bowl as the Gators' wide receivers coach. He was promoted to the position by then-Gators head coach Will Muschamp just prior to the start of the season and coached four players who played in the NFL – Frankie Hammond, Solomon Patton, Andre Debose and Quinton Dunbar.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, Hamdan coached tight ends at Sacramento State in 2011 and was an offensive intern at Maryland in 2010. During his season with the Hornets, he was part of an historic upset of Oregon State in the season opener. Hamdan began his coaching career as a student assistant at Colorado in 2009, where he worked with offensive coordinator Erik Kiesau, who went on to serve in the same role at Washington.

At Maryland, he worked with freshman quarterback Danny O'Brien, who broke nearly every freshman passing record at Maryland, earning ACC Rookie of the Year honors. Hamdan was part of a Ralph Friedgen staff that made one of the biggest turnarounds in recent college history, posting a 9-4 record after having gone 2-10 in 2009. Friedgen promoted Hamdan to quarterbacks coach for the 2010 Military Bowl (a win over East Carolina) after James Franklin left to take the head coaching job at Vanderbilt.

A two-time team captain, Hamdan was a quarterback at Boise State, winning the Bronco Excellence Award following his senior season. In his last three seasons, all played under Petersen, the Broncos posted a 35-4 overall record, including a perfect 13-0 mark in 2006 and a win over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Boise State in 2008 and received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State in 2009.

A standout high school quarterback and baseball player at Bishop O'Connell in Arlington, Va., and a native of Gaithersburg, Md., he earned Washington D.C. all-metro honors. His brother, Gibran, played quarterback at Indiana and in the NFL. Gibran was drafted by Washington in 2003 and spent time on the active rosters at Washington, San Francisco and Seattle while also earning NFL Europe MVP honors in 2006 as a member of the Rhein Fire.

Hamdan and his wife, Brita, welcomed a son, Archer, in February, 2021.

Curtis Luper

Running Backs • Second Year
Stephen. F. Austin, 1996

Curtis Luper joined the Mizzou football staff in December, 2019. A 25-year veteran of the coaching profession and regarded among the nation's top recruiters, Luper oversees the Tigers' running backs.

Larry Rountree III was explosive for the Mizzou offense in 2020, as he rushed for 972 yards in 10 games while scoring 14 TDs on the ground, the eighth-most in a single season in program history, and was named to the All-Southeastern Conference second team by the league's coaches. In the sixth round of the 2021 NFL Draft, he was selected by the Los Angeles Chargers with the 14th pick in the round and the 198th overall selection.

Rountree III left Mizzou as one of the most decorated running backs in program history, as he ranks first among running backs and second all-time in rushing yards (3,720 yards) and rushing TDs (40). His 3,720 career rushing yards rank 16th on the SEC's career rushing list as he produced 800+ yards in each of his last three seasons, including a 1,000-yard season (1,216) as a sophomore in 2018.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Luper spent seven seasons at TCU (2013-19), including the final three as co-offensive coordinator, running backs coach and recruiting coordinator. In three of his seasons, TCU won double-digit games and finished ranked in the Associated Press Top 10. Those seasons included a 12-1 record and Big 12 Championship in 2014 (final AP rank of No. 3), and 11-win seasons in both 2015 (No. 7 final AP rank) and 2017 (No. 9 final AP rank).

After serving as TCU's wide receivers coach in 2013, Luper was named running backs coach in 2014 and made an immediate impact on the position. Three Horned Frogs (B.J. Catalon, Aaron Green and Trevorris Johnson) topped the 100-yard mark over the course of the season with Green a second-team All-Big 12 selection.

In 2015, Green became the Horned Frogs' first 1,000-yard rusher since 2010 and earned All-Big 12 recognition in the process. He signed with the Los Angeles Rams. The 2016 campaign saw Kyle Hicks also top the 1,000-yard mark and receive All-Big 12 accolades. It marked the first time since 2002-03 that TCU had back-to-back seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher.

The 2018 season saw Darius Anderson record a 93-yard touchdown run against Ohio State for the longest rushing play in TCU history. Sewo Olonilua then closed the year with a TCU bowl record 194 yards rushing to earn Cheez-It Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player honors in the 10-7 overtime win against Cal.

Luper has also logged four years each at Auburn (2009-12) and Oklahoma State (2005-08) where he coached running backs, as well as other duties. His running backs have produced 1,000-yard seasons 13 times in his career. He's been named multiple times to the Rivals.com Top 25 recruiter national rankings. Just a few of the top athletes he's recruited have included Auburn's 2010 Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton and 2010 Lombardi Award winner and SEC Defensive Player of the Year Nick Fairley, in addition to Oklahoma State All-Americans Dez Bryant and Russell Okung.

During his time at Auburn, Luper consistently produced some of the nation's most highly-ranked recruiting classes. He also helped the Tigers register back-to-back seasons of record-breaking offensive production and a pair of 1,000-yard rushers. Luper recruited and coached running back Michael Dyer to an Auburn freshman record 1,093 rushing yards and Offensive Most Valuable Player honors in the 2011 BCS National Championship Game. Dyer was a 2010 Freshman All-SEC selection and second-team Freshman All-America. Dyer rushed for 1,242 yards and 10 touchdowns in the 2011 campaign.

Auburn's rushing attack led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally with an average of 284.8 yards per game during the Tigers' 2010 national championship season. Auburn then set a school record with 3,987 rushing yards in 2011. The 2010 Tigers set team records for points (577) and total offense (6,989 yards) for the second consecutive year.

In 2009, the Auburn offense set numerous single-season school records, including points (433) and total offense (5,613 yards). Luper coached running back Ben Tate as he rushed for 1,362 yards and was a Doak Walker Award semifinalist.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn, Luper served as Oklahoma State's running backs coach from 2005-08. He was also the assistant head coach for player development during his last two seasons with the Cowboys. Under Luper, the OSU running attack led the Big 12 in rushing each of his last three seasons. As an assistant coach at New Mexico (2002-04), Luper coached the Mountain West's career rushing leader in DonTrell Moore.

In recruiting, Luper helped bring in classes that were consistently ranked in the top 10 nationally by ESPN, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Auburn signed a consensus top five class in 2010. For his efforts, Luper was named by Rivals to its list of the top 25 recruiters in the nation and one of the SEC's top 10 recruiters.

A native of Sherman, Texas, Luper started his coaching career at Stephen F. Austin (1995-96). Luper began his playing days at Oklahoma State (1984-87). From 1988-92, he served as an air traffic controller for the United States Army. During his tenure in the Army, Luper spent eight months combined at Fort McClellan in Anniston, Ala., and Fort Rucker near Enterprise, Ala.

Luper completed his eligibility at Stephen F. Austin as an All-Southland Conference running back in 1993 with a team high 1,054 rushing yards and nine touchdowns. He signed with the Houston Oilers following his senior season.

Luper earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Stephen F. Austin in 1996 and master's degree in communications from SFA in 1998. He is working on a doctoral degree in secondary and higher education from Texas A&M-Commerce.

Luper and his wife, Nikki, have three daughters, A'rielle, Charitie and Cheyenne, and two sons, Cameron and Chancellor.

D.J. Smith

Linebackers • Second Year
Appalachian State, 2010

D.J. Smith joined the Mizzou football staff as linebackers coach in December, 2019. He mentored one of Mizzou's most explosive defensive standouts in Nick Bolton in 2020.

On the field, Bolton's 67 solo tackles led the conference while his 95 total tackles ranked seventh. He also ranked among the SEC's best in tackles per game (9.5, seventh) and tackles-for-loss (8.0, 13th).

In the 2021 NFL Draft, Bolton was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs with the 26th pick in the second round and the 58th overall selection. He finished his Mizzou career earning 2020 second-team All-America distinction from six different outlets (Associated Press, The Athletic, The FWAA, the AFCA, Phil Steele and Walter Camp). He was named to the All-SEC first team by the league's coaches and the AP, was a Butkus Award finalist, a Jason Witten Man of the Year semifinalist and was named to the SEC Community Service Team.

Smith spent the 2018 and 2019 seasons - the latter on Eliah Drinkwitz's staff - as outside linebackers coach at Appalachian State, his alma mater. Both years saw the Mountaineers win the Sun Belt Conference Championship.

Smith, who was a standout linebacker for the Mountaineers, was part of the App State coaching staff in various roles since 2016. In that time, App State amassed a 42-10 overall record, won or shared four-straight Sun Belt Conference Championships, and went a perfect 3-0 in bowl games to date.

Working under Drinkwitz in 2019, Smith helped lead the Mountaineers to a Sun Belt title with a 12-1 overall record and a No. 20 national ranking. App State's defense played a key role in its title run, as the Mountaineers ranked in the top 30 nationally in numerous major statistical categories, including: third down defense (14th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 31.4%), pass efficiency defense (18th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 114.60), interceptions (19th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 13), scoring defense (22nd NCAA/2nd Sun Belt – 20.2 avg.) and total defense (26th NCAA/1st Sun Belt – 335.9 avg.).

Two of Smith's pupils received 2019 all-conference recognition, including Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year, and first-team All-Sun Belt honoree Akeem Davis-Gaither. Additionally, Noel Cook was voted to All-Sun Belt honorable mention team.

In helping App State win the inaugural Sun Belt Championship Game and win a fourth straight bowl game in 2018, Smith coached a group that included Davis-Gaither, who led Sun Belt players from bowl-bound teams in tackles per game. He returned to Boone in 2016 as the director of recruiting relations and worked in 2017 as a senior defensive analyst.

A Charlotte native, Smith started the final nine games of App State's 2007 national championship run as a true freshman and had more than 120 tackles in each of his four college seasons, including two in which he earned All-America recognition. He finished his career with 525 tackles, 50 straight starts and ranks second behind only Dexter Coakley on the career tackles list at Appalachian.

After being a sixth-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers in 2011, he made three starts in 16 games as a rookie and started six more games the following year. He totaled 82 tackles, two sacks and one interception with the Packers before spending time with the San Diego Chargers and Carolina Panthers from 2013-14.

A graduate of Charlotte's Independence High School, Smith is the son of Pamela Rice and Darryl Smith, Sr. He has a son, Carter.

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS RANKINGS

Beginning in 1936, the Associated Press polled a group of broadcasters and sports writers from around the nation, asking them to rank the various college football teams. Although other polls have come and gone, the AP's is the only one that has run in the nation's newspapers every year since 1936.

From this point forward, AP rankings for Missouri and its opponents are listed. A number in parenthesis appearing before an opponent's name indicates Missouri's ranking. A number in parenthesis appearing after an opponent's name is its ranking. "R" indicates a team was receiving votes.

MEMORIAL STADIUM / FAUROT FIELD

The storied history of Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field combines the best of old and new. Opened in 1926, the stadium has seen tremendous growth throughout the years, but Tiger fans are proud of the traditional feel and atmosphere the stadium lends itself to on game day.

The 2019 season saw perhaps the most significant addition ever to the stadium's skyline – the new South End Zone Complex. The facility, which houses the every-day operations of the football program, is a state-of-the-art building which also provides numerous new amenities for fans – the most visible being a massive scoreboard/videoboard spanning the width of the building.

Multiple private club levels and 16 luxury suites are available for donors, as well as improved seating, concessions and restrooms for the public. The structure had a price tag of $98 million, and capacity at the stadium was finalized at 62,621.

Debuting in 2014 was a spacious new upper deck (called the Tiger Deck) and a beautiful lounge/club level just below (called the Walsworth Family Columns Club), which features 1,200 luxury seats and top-notch amenities. The Tiger Deck provides 4,200 seats, and with improved new public facilities.

Eye-catching ribbon boards, providing real-time stats, out-of-town scores and other information, were installed on the facades of both the east and west structures prior to the 2014 season.

Fans saw many changes for 2013, including a newly-renovated west press box/luxury suite tower, as well as a change to the historical hill beyond the north end zone.

The hill was moved closer to the field to allow for an expansion of the north concourse area – providing much more space for fans to congregate during games. The historic Rock M was broken down and stored away safely during the summer and brought back with the same rocks to maintain the important historical landmark that Tiger fans have grown to love.

Prior to the 2012 season, a sparkling brand-new FieldTurf field was installed on Faurot Field, to commemorate Mizzou's first year in the Southeastern Conference, as well as to reflect a new graphic identity partnership with Nike.

An exciting addition to the game-day atmosphere was unveiled prior to the 2009 home opener, when a high-definition video board debuted. With a video display spanning 80-feet by 31 1/2 feet, the new display, to go along with an improved sound system throughout the stadium.

Among the features installed prior to the 2003 season was a state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, FieldTurf. The project to convert the old natural grass surface (on which Mizzou played from 1995-2002) began in April of 2003 and was completed on June 26. The Tigers enjoyed great success on the surface in 2003, as Mizzou went a perfect 6-0 at Faurot Field, setting a school record for most home wins in a season.

The original stadium, built at a cost of $350,000, was the product of Coach Gwinn Henry's championship seasons of 1924-25, and a vision of athletic director Chester L. Brewer. It was carved out of "a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the University," chronicled Bob Broeg, longtime sports editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and unofficial historian of Missouri football.

Though the seating capacity is now at 62,621, crowds in excess of 75,000 have seen the Tigers play in Columbia—against Texas in 1979, and a record 75,298 against Penn State in 1980.

Mizzou packed in a then-modern-day record crowd of 71,004 on Oct. 24, 2009 against Texas – marking the largest crowd to see a game at Faurot Field since 1983. That was matched in 2010 against Oklahoma during Mizzou's memorable Homecoming win over the top-ranked Sooners, and matched again in 2011 against Iowa State, and in 2012 versus Georgia, Arizona State and Alabama.

Coach Don Faurot's powerhouse Split "T" teams in the late '30's and '40's helped pay off the stadium bonds—along with Faurot's brave scheduling of Ohio State for nine straight years at Columbus, and big paydays from games with NYU and Fordham back east.

Peak attendance in the Tigers' single-tiered football arena was 30,832, who crammed into temporary bleachers and sat on the hillside to watch Faurot's team upset No. 4 SMU, 20-14, in 1948.

A year later, the stadium underwent its first facelift with the addition of sections in the center of the west side, boosting the number of rows from 40 to 78. Those piece-meal additions continued sporadically until the summer of 1965, when the final two sections on the southeast corner were completed in the two-tired horseshoe.

The playing field adopted a new name in 1972 – Faurot Field—in honor of the legendary Mizzou football coach and athletic director whose teams and administrative leadership helped mightily to pay off the mortgage. As a matter of fact, Faurot, a graduate student in 1926, helped lay the stadium's sod. He made one last symbolic contribution to the field, dropping in the last square of turf in June 1995, when Mizzou converted its previous artificial surface to natural grass. Faurot died later that year, during Homecoming week.

The traditional block "M," carved from stone by the freshman class in 1927, guards the stadium's north end zone and gives Memorial Stadium one of the nation's more unique landmarks.

The "M," formed by whitewashed rocks, is 90-feet wide and 95-feet high. Mizzou's yearbook, the Savitar, recounted the debut of the Missouri landmark on Oct. 1, 1927, when the Tigers defeated Kansas State, 13-6:

"Five-hundred freshmen joined hands and encircled the cinder track in a single line while the bland played 'Old Missouri' in the center of the field. The pennants of all the Missouri Valley fluttered and danced above the stadium on the long line at the open end of the gridiron. A huge stone M – the work of the Frosh the night before – loomed up white and threatening against the bankment."

The "M" has weathered the good and bad times. In 1957, a group of pranksters changed the "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But, the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff.

In 1995, Mizzou converted Faurot Field from an artificial surface known as OmniTurf (which graced the field from 1985-1994) to natural grass. The field was not the only cosmetic change made to Faurot Field in 1995. Grass-covered terraces now extend upward from field level to the grandstands, where they meet a brick wall that adds a traditional collegiate ambiance to the stadium. The hill on the north end of the field was re-graded to provide a consistent "bowl" and was framed at the time by nearly 600 bushes.

Over the last 46 years, upgrades to the stadium's superstructure have been made, giving the natural bowl the tender loving care it needs to remain as the home of the Tigers for many years to come.

In 1991, all of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum. Work in the stadium in 1995 also addressed accessibility issues. Seating sections and vomitories were modified to allow wheelchair access on both the east and west sides. Restrooms and concessions stands were replaced, as were the concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands in the next phase of the project, which was completed in 1997. The $12 million effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. A portion of the project was completed in 1996, installing four light towers for night games.

Faurot Field had an artificial surface once before 1985 – for its very first game in 1926. Construction of the sunken stadium seating 25,000 spectators went down to the wire in the fall of '26 with the heaviest September rainfall in 35 years contributing to the delay.

Time ran out before the playing surface could be sodded for the Oct. 2 opener with Tulane. Constant rains washed out a bridge east of Columbia, and though repaired in time, slightly more than 10,000 drenched fans showed up for the opening ceremonies.

Without sod, sawdust and tanbark were spread on the field as an alternative, and the Tigers and the Green Wave played to a "scoreless, mudpie tie," Broeg wrote in his two historical books on Mizzou football.

MEMORIAL STADIUM / FAUROT FIELD TIMELINE

- December, 1925 – Ground broken for future site of Memorial Stadium. It was carved out of a sizeable natural valley that lay between twin bluffs south of the campus.
- Oct. 2, 1926 – Stadium dedicated in memory of the 112 Missouri graduates and students who died in World War I. Mizzou and Tulane played to a scoreless tie on a field that was a muddy disaster due to torrential rains that drenched the Columbia area prior to the game. The field was built with a 440-yard track encircling it.
- Oct. 1, 1927 – The landmark rock 'M' debuts at Memorial Stadium after members of the freshman class construct it with leftover rocks from the stadium project. The monument stood 90 feet wide by 95 feet high and has watched over the field ever since that day, when Mizzou defeated Kansas State, 13-7. The Tigers were a perfect 4-0 at home during the 1927 season, which helped boost MU to its third Missouri Valley Conference championship since 1924 under Coach Gwinn Henry.
- Oct. 13, 1928 – Coach Gwinn Henry's Tigers open the 1928 season by pasting visiting Centre (Ky.) College, 60-0. It remained as Mizzou's largest margin of victory at Memorial Stadium until a 77-0 win over Delaware State in 2016.
- Sept. 28, 1935 – Don Faurot makes his debut as Missouri's Head Coach with a 39-0 whitewashing of William Jewell College. Faurot's first Tiger squad would go on to post a 3-3-3 record.
- Nov. 5, 1938 – Missouri blanks visiting Michigan State, 6-0. The win started a 20-game winning streak for the Tigers at Memorial Stadium, a record that still stands today. Mizzou would not lose at home again until a 20-13 loss to Oklahoma on Nov. 13, 1943.
- Nov. 4, 1939 – Unranked Missouri defeats 10th-ranked Nebraska, 27-13, at Memorial Stadium to mark MU's first-ever win over a ranked team. Two weeks later, the Tigers, now ranked 12th, upset No. 5 Oklahoma, 7-6, at Memorial Stadium, and went on to win the Big Six title – the first of three league championships to be won under Faurot from 1939-42.
- Oct. 9, 1948 – One of the biggest upsets in Memorial Stadium history occurs, as the unranked Tigers ambush No. 4-ranked SMU, 20-14.
- Summer, 1949 – Stadium undergoes first expansion as 5,000 seats are added to the center section of west stands, increasing the number of rows from 40 to 78. Also built was a new press box that included seating for 50 writers and featured eight radio booths.
- Dec. 1, 1956 – Don Faurot is carried off the field on the shoulders of his players after his Tigers post a stirring last-minute 15-13 win over rival Kansas in Faurot's final game as a coach.
- Oct. 25, 1957 – A group of pranksters changed the rock "M" to an "N" the night before the Missouri-Nebraska game. But the Mizzou groundskeeper, with the help of some young boys who gained free admission to the game in exchange for their assistance, restored the "M" to its proper form before kickoff. The next day, Missouri used a last-minute touchdown to post a come-from-behind 14-13 win over the Huskers.
- Sept. 20, 1958 – Coach Dan Devine, the third Tiger coach in three years, makes his Missouri debut against Vanderbilt, but the visiting Commodores spoil the day by leaving Columbia with a 12-8 victory.
- Nov. 19, 1960 – One of the more infamous events in the history of Memorial Stadium took place, as the No. 1-ranked and undefeated Tigers were upset, 23-7, in the regular-season finale by unranked rival Kansas. The loss spoiled any national championship hopes for the Tigers, who would go on to beat Navy in the Orange Bowl and finish ranked as high as No. 4 in the UPI poll. It was later discovered that Kansas had used an ineligible player, and the game was officially forfeited by the Jayhawks, giving Mizzou a bittersweet administrative victory.
- Summer, 1965 – Final expansion of original horseshoe completed on southeast corner that added 3,595 seats bringing capacity at the time to 44,344 permanent seats.
- 1968 – New press box and VIP lounge constructed by private subscription.
- Nov. 21, 1970 – Dan Devine coaches his last game at Mizzou, and fittingly, goes out a winner against Kansas, 28-17.
- 1972 – Playing surface named Faurot Field in honor of legendary coach and athletic director Don Faurot.
- Oct. 28, 1972 – Coach Al Onofrio's unranked Tigers upset No. 7 Colorado, 20-17. Five more times over the next four years, Onofrio's squads would upset ranked teams on the newly christened Faurot Field.
- Oct. 13, 1973 – Mizzou got one of its biggest wins ever at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field when the No. 12-ranked Tigers defeated No. 2 Nebraska, 13-12, when a last-minute Husker two-point conversion pass was intercepted by MU's Tony Gillick. Nebraska had beaten Mizzou by a combined score of 98-0 the two previous years. It remains as the highest-ranked foe any Tiger team has ever beaten.
- Summer, 1978 – South end zone was enclosed with 10,800 permanent seats.
- Oct. 4, 1980 – Largest crowd to ever see a game at Faurot Field witnessed a 29-21 upset win by No. 19-ranked Penn State over No. 7-ranked Mizzou. A record crowd of 75,298 saw the game.
- Oct. 15, 1983 – Musco Mobile Lighting brings in portable lights to illuminate a mid-afternoon game vs. Nebraska. Mizzou's defense holds Nebraska's "Scoring Explosion" offense somewhat in check, but still falls to the top-ranked Huskers, 34-13.
- Summer, 1984 – Glass-enclosed Tiger Lounge constructed in lower level of press box facility.
- May 18, 1985 – Project began to convert Faurot Field's natural grass surface to new artificial surface called Omniturf. Project was completed on Aug. 30th.

MEMORIAL STADIUM / FAUROT FIELD TIMELINE

- Sept. 14, 1985 – First game on Omniturf is an ominous 27-23 loss to Northwestern. Mizzou would finish the year 0-7 at home, with five of the games decided by a touchdown or less.
- Oct. 11, 1986 – Kicker Tom Whelihan kicks school-record 62-yard field goal in a 17-12 loss to Colorado.
- Oct. 6, 1990 – No. 12-ranked Colorado escaped Faurot Field with a 33-31 win over Mizzou after benefiting from an officiating oversight that gave the Buffaloes five downs to score the winning TD on fifth-and-goal in the closing seconds. The "Fifth Down Game" helped propel the Buffaloes to a share of the national title that year.
- Summer, 1991 – All of the stadium's old cypress bleachers were replaced with aluminum.
- June 1, 1992 – Big Eight Conference coaches approve a statement that read, in part: "Big Eight Conference football coaches wanted to report that the football field at the University of Missouri is a detriment to the home and visiting teams and takes away from the integrity of the game played on such a field."
- Summer, 1992 – Facilities completed underneath south stands provided the Tigers a spacious game-day locker room, improved medical facilities including X-ray equipment, and a large interview room.
- Oct. 8, 1992 – Musco brings in portable lights to illuminate the first-ever night game at Memorial Stadium/Faurot Field vs. Colorado. In brutally cold and wet weather, the No. 9-ranked Buffaloes escape with a 6-0 win.
- Nov. 11, 1992 – Coach Bob Stull's Tigers close the 1992 season out with a 22-17 upset win over No. 22-ranked Kansas. Kicker Jeff Jacke set an MU single-game record by making five field goals in the game.
- Sept. 18, 1994 – Rock and Roll legends The Rolling Stones perform an open-air concert at Memorial Stadium before 45,000 fans. The concert helped provide nearly $100,000 toward the eventual project that converted the Omniturf surface to natural grass the next year.
- Nov. 19, 1994 – Mizzou loses its home finale to Kansas, 31-14. The game would mark the last played on the now infamous Omniturf surface. In its 10 seasons on the surface, Mizzou's record was just 20-38-3.
- June, 1995 – Project begins to convert Faurot Field from Omniturf back to natural grass. The grass, a blend of five Kentucky bluegrass varieties, was donated for the project by Gene Sandner and Darrell Seltsam of S&S Seed Farms/Evergreen Sod in Rocheport, Mo. Legendary Coach Don Faurot, who helped lay sod for the original field in 1926 at Memorial Stadium, put down the last piece of sod to finalize the newest version as a symbolic gesture. Faurot later died in October of that year, during Homecoming Week.
- June, 1995 – Grass-covered terraces were extended upward from field level to the grandstands, where they met a new brick wall, to give the stadium a traditional collegiate ambiance. The red brick eventually became a central unifying theme throughout the Sports Park at MU the evolved in the years to follow.
- Sept. 2, 1995 – Mizzou defeats North Texas, 28-7, on first game back on natural grass at Memorial Stadium.
- Summer, 1996 – Four light towers were permanently installed, giving Missouri the opportunity to play night games on a regular basis.
- Sept. 14, 1996 – First-ever night game at Faurot Field with permanent light system goes awry, as Memphis leaves with a 19-16 upset win over the Tigers.
- Oct. 26, 1996 – The first overtime game in Mizzou history results in a 35-28 Tiger Homecoming win over Oklahoma State.
- Summer, 1997 — $12 million renovation of Faurot Field was completed that replaced restrooms, concession stands and concourse surfaces beneath the grandstands. The effort also included new ticket booths, a reconfigured north entrance, more brickwork to accent what was installed at field level in 1995, and parking lot improvements. Diamond Vision video replay scoreboard is installed as part of this project above the rock 'M', with a screen measuring 21-feet tall by 27-feet wide.
- Nov. 8, 1997 – Top-ranked Nebraska escaped Faurot Field with a 45-38 overtime win after a miracle TD on a fourth down in the closing seconds of regulation forced the extra period. The win helped propel Nebraska to a share of the national championship that year. The Huskers' miracle TD took place in the same North end zone where Colorado scored to win seven years earlier in the "5th-Down Game," prompting MU fans to believe there is a curse of sorts in the North end zone.
- Sept. 12, 1998 – Senior tailback Devin West rushed for a school-record 319 yards on 33 carries in leading the No. 25-ranked Tigers to a 41-23 win over rival Kansas.
- April, 2003 – Faurot Field sod torn up to make way for switch to artificial surface and salvageable amounts given free to Tiger fans.
- June 25, 2003 – FieldTurf installation project is completed.
- Sept. 13, 2003 – The first game ever on FieldTurf is a success, as Mizzou crushes Eastern Illinois, 37-0, giving the Tigers their first shutout win since 1998.
- Oct. 11, 2003 – Mizzou, stinging from its previous game, an unexpected 35-14 loss at Kansas, rebounds to earn one of the biggest wins in recent memory, as the Tigers upset No. 10-ranked Nebraska, 41-24 on a wet night that was televised nationally by TBS. The win, which came before a sellout crowd of 68,349, broke a 25-game Husker winning streak over MU, and it marked Mizzou's first win in Columbia over Nebraska since 1973.
- Oct. 25, 2003 – Mizzou becomes bowl eligible by getting its sixth win of the season in fine fashion, as it outdistanced Texas Tech and its Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback B.J. Symons, 62-31. Mizzou's QB extraordinaire Brad Smith broke a school record by scoring five touchdowns, as he rushed for 291 yards.
- Nov. 29, 2003 – On the Saturday of Thanksgiving week, Mizzou closed out a perfect 6-0 home record with a 45-7 win over Iowa State to earn its eighth win of the year. Senior tailback Zack Abron became MU's all-time rushing leader on a first quarter run.

- Sept. 10, 2005 – In a 45-35 loss to New Mexico, senior quarterback Brad Smith became Mizzou's career rushing AND passing leader on consecutive drives in the game's third quarter.

- Nov. 12, 2005 – Record-setting quarterback Brad Smith closed out his Faurot Field career by leading Mizzou to a hard-fought 31-16 win over Baylor. Smith, who would end his career holding as many as 69 different MU, Big 12 and NCAA game, season and career records, closed his brilliant home career by rushing for 161 yards and 3 TDs.

- Sept. 2, 2006 – Sophomore QB Chase Daniel made his first career start, and promptly broke the MU single-game passing touchdown record by throwing five scoring strikes in the 2006 season opener against Murray State.

- Oct. 6, 2007 – The No. 17-ranked Tigers blitzed No. 25-ranked Nebraska, 41-6, before a modern-day record crowd of 70,049. The win was MU's most lopsided over Nebraska since 1947, and Chase Daniel's 473 all-purpose yards were only seven shy of the MU record of 480 set by Brad Smith in 2005, also against Nebraska.

- Spring, 2009 – Work began on a new video board display to replace the aging board located on the top of the grass hill beyond the north end zone. The project was completed prior to MU's 2009 home opener on Sept. 12 against Bowling Green.

- Oct. 23, 2010 – Mizzou earned its first-ever win over a No. 1-ranked opponent as the Tigers posted a scintillating 36-27 comeback win over Oklahoma on Homecoming. The win was seen nationally on ABC and was also supplemented by the first-ever Columbia appearance by the ESPN College GameDay set.

- Sept. 8, 2012 – Mizzou played its first-ever Southeastern Conference game at Faurot Field, with SEC Commissioner Mike Slive on hand for the ceremonial coin toss to open the historic night. Mizzou played toe-to-toe with the No. 7-ranked Georgia Bulldogs, and held a 20-17 lead late in the third quarter before the Bulldogs scored 24 unanswered points to pull away for a 41-24 win.

- March, 2018 – South end zone structure demolished to make way for new football training facility and premium seating section, which opened in August of 2019.

- Oct. 10, 2020 – Mizzou uses a goal-line stand in the game's final minutes to defeat defending national champion and No. 17 LSU, 45-41, to give first-year head coach Eliah Drinkwitz his first win at Mizzou.

- Spring, 2021 – New AstroTurf installed.

1974 - Ed "Brick" Travis, T

Hailing from Tarkio, Mo., Ed "Brick" Travis starred as a high school player, dreaming of the day when he could play for the University of Missouri. But the promising young lineman decided to stay at home and play for tiny Tarkio College as a freshman in 1916. The next season, Ed Travis was summoned to Missouri and fitted for a Tiger uniform. World War I suspended football competition at Mizzou and sent Ed packing for military duty. The interruption didn't slow him up, however. He was back in Black and Gold gear for the 1919 season, anchoring the Tiger line with his bone-shattering performances. During his final two campaigns at Missouri, the Tigers won 12, lost 2 and tied 2. They were 7-1-0 in Ed's final season, losing only to Oklahoma. After his Missouri days – where he earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1919 and 1920, Travis entered a three-year professional football career with teams in Rock Island and St. Louis. He was a stone-hard lineman, an immovable mass of muscle and bone. It was not unusual for "Brick" to clear out an entire side of an opposing line in a single play. He was inducted into the Mizzou Athletics Hall of Fame as part of its inaugural class in 1990. Prior to that, he was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1972, and later in the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

Mizzou's other NFF Hall of Fame players bios are available elsewhere in this almanac.

ALL-AMERICANS

Missouri has had 36 first-team All-Americans, 13 of whom have been consensus choices— center Darold Jenkins ('41), end Danny LaRose ('60), defensive back Johnny Roland ('65), defensive back Roger Wehrli ('68), tight end Kellen Winslow ('78), offensive tackle John Clay ('86), center Rob Riti ('99), tight end Martin Rucker (2007), all-purpose man Jeremy Maclin (2007 and 2008), tight end Chase Coffman (2008), tight end Michael Egnew (2010), defensive end Michael Sam (2013) and defensive end Shane Ray (2014).

1925 - Ed Lindenmeyer, T

Mizzou's very first All-American, as he won the designation for the 1925 season. A native of Lake Forest, Ill., Lindenmeyer came to Mizzou and starred at both tackle and end, lettering in 1924-25-26. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference honors in 1925, and blocked a punt for a safety in a 9-6 upset win over Nebraska that season. Lindenmeyer lettered on Gwinn Henry's teams that had a stellar three-year record of 18-4-3. He later went on to coach at Lake Forest (Ill.) College.

1939 - Paul Christman, QB

The legendary "Pitchin Paul" Christman came to Mizzou from Maplewood, Mo., and lettered in football in 1938-39-40, and in baseball in 1938-39-41. He was a three-time All-Big Six Conference quarterback, and twice won All-America honors. Christman finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting in 1939, and fifth in 1940. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Chicago Cardinals (1945-49) and Green Bay Packers (1950), and led the Cardinals to division titles in 1947-48 and the league championship in 1947. In 1940, he led the nation with 1,131 yards passing and 13 TD passes. During his career, MU had a 20-8 record, with a Big Six title in '39, and its first bonafide bowl game – the 1940 Orange Bowl. The first Tiger player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame (in 1956), his jersey (44) number is retired.

1941 - Darold Jenkins, C

A faultless ball-handler, Missouri's Darold Jenkins was a mid-line magician during the early 1940s. He played the unheralded role of center, making coach Don Faurot's split-T formation click through a 22-7 record. On defense he played middle linebacker. In 1941, Jenkins captained the Tigers and led them to one of their most exciting seasons. They lost to Ohio State, 12-7, in the season opener, then ran off eight victories before bowing to Fordham, 2-0, in the Sugar Bowl. Missouri won the Big Six championship that year and Jenkins was named All-Conference and All-America. Jenkins was the leading center of his day and Faurot considered him a "play- maker" because of his ability to get the offense moving. After college, Jenkins served six years in the U.S. Army Air Corps logging 27 combat missions over Germany. He spent 16 months as a prisoner of war. When he retired from the military, Jenkins held the rank of lieutenant colonel. He returned to study law and, in 1952, became a practicing attorney, eventually joining the Missouri State Highway Commission. He died September 16, 1986.

1942 - Bob Steuber, HB

A star halfback out of CBC High School in St. Louis, Mo., Steuber lettered at MU in 1940-41-42. He was a two-time All-Big Six selection, who won All-America honors in 1942, and is one of seven Tigers to have his jersey (37) retired. He still holds the MU single-season scoring record for a non-kicker (121 points in 1942) and ranks ninth in career scoring and 17th in rushing yards in school history. His 2,030 rushing yards stood as the MU record for 28 years. He posted MU's first 1,000-yard rushing campaign in 1942, ranking second in the nation with 1,098 yards. When MU led the nation in rushing in 1941, he was third in the nation with 855 yards. Steuber played in the East-West Shrine and College All-Star Games following graduation, then played professionally with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Los Angeles Dons and Buffalo Bills. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1971.

1955 - Harold Burnine, E

An All-America receiver for Coach Don Faurot in 1955, when he led the nation in receiving with 44 receptions for 594 yards. He led the conference in receiving in 1954, as well. The native of Richmond, Mo., was also All-Big Seven that year, and played in four all-star games – the Blue-Gray, North-South, Senior Bowl and College All-Star game. For his three-year MU career, Burnine caught 75 passes for 1,145 yards, figures that kept him in the Tiger top-10 until the l990s. He played professionally with the New York Giants and Philadelphia Eagles. Burnine was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

1960 - Danny LaRose, E

One of the greatest two-way talents in Missouri history, LaRose starred from 1958-60, as an end who could dominate the line of scrimmage, and was also MU's leading receiver as a sophomore and senior. He also punted for MU in 1960. A native of Crystal City, Mo., LaRose won all-conference honors in 1958 and '60, and was a consensus All-America selection in 1960 (making 13 teams), when Missouri beat Navy and Heisman winner Joe Bellino in the Orange Bowl. LaRose played in the College All-Star Game and Hula Bowl in 1961, then went on to a pro career with the Detroit Lions, Pittsburgh Steelers and Miami Dolphins. He was also an accomplished thrower in track, who held Missouri's indoor shot put record for many years.

1961 - Ed Blaine, T

One of the greatest offensive linemen in Missouri history, Blaine lettered in 1959-60-61. He received All-Big Eight and All-America honors in 1961, and was an honorable mention selection on the Missouri All-Century Team. A native of Farmington, Mo., Blaine played in the East-West Shrine Game, the Senior Bowl and the College All-Star Game, after his senior season, en route to an NFL career with the Green Bay Packers (1962-63) and Philadelphia Eagles (1963-66). In his post-playing days, Blaine established himself as one of the nation's foremost pharmaceutical researchers, and spoke at Mizzou's commencement exercises.

1962 - Conrad Hitchler, E

A standout two-way end for Coach Dan Devine, who lettered at Mizzou from 1960-62. Hitchler led Mizzou in receiving in 1961, and was an All-Big Eight selection in both 1961 and '62. He earned All-America status as a senior, then went on to play in the East-West Shrine Game, the Hula Bowl and the Coaches All-America Game. He played three years in the Canadian Football League as a member of the Calgary Stampeders. His son, Conrad Goode, was also an All-American offensive tackle for the Tigers in 1983.

1965 - Johnny Roland, DB

Johnny Roland's career at Missouri had two dimensions. As a sophomore in 1962 he was a running back. He rushed for 830 yards, seventh-best total nationally, and scored 78 points, ninth in the nation. He rushed for 155 yards against Oklahoma State, 104 against Iowa State. When he returned for his junior year in 1964, Coach Dan Devine moved him to defensive back. He made All-America at this position in 1965. Roland stood 6-2, weighed 198, and was a power runner. Even in the years he was a defensive back, Devine occasionally moved him into the game on offense. He always picked times when Missouri had the ball inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In 1965 Roland also returned 42 punts and kickoffs for 690 yards, averaging 16.4 yards on each. He was Missouri's co-captain in 1965, and helped the team to an 8-2-1 record, including a 20-18 victory over Florida in the 1966 Sugar Bowl. Missouri retired his jersey, No. 23, and he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1998. He made All-Big Eight as a running back in 1962 and as a defensive back in 1964 and 1965. In 1965 he had six pass interceptions. He had an eight-year pro playing career with St. Louis and the New York Giants, winning NFL Rookie-of-the-Year honors with the Cardinals. He went on to a nearly 30-year career as a coach in the NFL.

1965 - Francis Peay, OT

A Pittsburgh, Pa., native, Francis Peay was a standout tackle at Mizzou in 1964-65, and won All-Big Eight and All-America honors as a senior when Missouri ranked third nationally in rushing offense and won the Sugar Bowl over Florida and Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. He was the Big Eight's lineman of the week following MU's 17-6 win over Minnesota that season, and later played in the Senior Bowl, Coaches All-American Game and College All-Star Game. He was a first-round choice of the New York Giants in the 1966 NFL Draft, and later played with the Green Bay Packers (1968-72) and Kansas City Chiefs (1973-75). Named to the Missouri All-Century Team, he was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1967 - Russ Washington, OT

One of the most dominant linemen in MU history, Russ Washington was the Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American in 1967. He was twice named All-Big Eight and played in four all-star games following his senior season. Washington starred in the NFL for the San Diego Chargers from 1968-83, and had two brothers, Wayne and David, who later played on the offensive line for Mizzou.

1968 - Roger Wehrli, DB

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes. A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

1969 - Mike Carroll, OG

A powerful blocker who was selected a first-team All-American offensive lineman as a senior after helping lead Missouri to the 1970 Orange Bowl. That Tiger squad featured one of the nation's most high-powered offensive attacks, and the team finished the 1969 season as the Big Eight Conference Co-Champions with a 9-2 record and No. 6 national ranking. The 1969 team set school records at the time for points per game (36.2), total yards (4,507), passing yards (2,048) and touchdown passes (20). Carroll helped pave the way for running back Joe Moore to gain 1,312 yards rushing (3rd in the nation) and for quarterback Terry McMillan to rank 12th nationally in 1969 with 2,157 total yards. The Ste. Genevieve, Mo., native, played in the prestigious Senior Bowl following his senior season.

1973 - Scott Anderson, C

A standout center on Missouri teams that played in the 1972 Fiesta and 1973 Sun Bowls, Anderson lettered for Coach Al Onofrio from 1971-73. An All-Big Eight and All-America selection as a senior in 1973, Anderson played in the Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American all-star games in 1974. He recovered a fumble that set up a touchdown that led to MU's 13-12 victory over Nebraska in Columbia in 1973. He went on to play in the National Football League with the Minnesota Vikings from 1974-77.

1973 - John Moseley, DB

One of the most exciting players ever to play at MU, Moseley holds the distinction of being the only MU football player ever to go from walk-on to All-American. A defensive back from 1971-73, Moseley was a daring kick return man. He ranked sixth nationally in punt returns in 1973, with an average of 16.5 yards per return. For his career, he averaged 13.3 yards, which stood as the school record until recently. The Columbia, Mo., native was named All-American as a senior in 1973.

1975 - Henry Marshall, WR

One of Mizzou's greatest receivers, Henry Marshall was an All-Big Eight and All-America choice in 1975, when he caught 44 passes for 945 yards and nine touchdowns. A native of Salina, Kan., he was a tight end when he lettered as a freshman in 1972, but moved to wideout while lettering in 1974 and '75. He played in the Blue-Gray Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Game following his senior year, then was drafted by the Kansas City Chiefs, for whom he played from 1976-87, and in the process, unseated Otis Taylor as Kansas City's all-time leading receiver. He held the MU records for receiving yards in a game (207) and season (945) for 15 years, before both were eventually broken. A first-team choice on the Missouri All-Century Team, Marshall was inducted into the MU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1991.

1976 - Morris Towns, OT

Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior tackle in 1976, a year that saw Mizzou pull huge upset wins on the road against four top 15 teams: No. 2 Ohio State, No. 3 Nebraska, No. 8 USC and No. 14 Colorado. Was known as being equally adept at providing crushing run blocks as he was providing excellent pass protection. A St. Louis, Mo., native who was a three-year starter for the Tigers. He won first-team All-Big Eight honors as a senior, and played in the Blue-Gray Game, the Hula Bowl and the Japan Bowl. He went on to become the 11th overall pick of the 1977 NFL Draft, to the Houston Oilers, and enjoyed a fine nine-year professional career, playing with the Oilers for six years, and the Washington Redskins for three more.

1978 - Kellen Winslow, TE

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Kellen Winslow redefined the tight end position at the collegiate and professional levels during his playing career. Before Winslow, most tight ends ran short-to medium-length pass patterns. Kellen was one of the first tight ends to run deeper routes due to his unique combination of size and speed. As a freshman, he only played in three games and caught one pass. The next year new coach Warren Powers installed an expanded passing offense in which Winslow and the Tigers flourished. That year Mizzou upset Notre Dame and Nebraska, two teams which were rated among the nation's top five teams, while Winslow's number of catches improved to 16. In his junior year, he won the first of back-to-back All-Conference selections. As a senior, he added consensus All-America honors to his list of accomplishments. Winslow went on to have a Pro Football Hall of Fame career in nine seasons with the San Diego Chargers, where he caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and nine touchdowns. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 2003.

1980 - Bill Whitaker, DB

A ballhawking defensive back who had a nose for big plays in the secondary. Earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1980 after leading the Big Eight Conference with six interceptions, including three in a single game against San Diego State. Oddly enough, he also had three pass interceptions as a junior in a game versus San Diego State. His 14 career interceptions tied him for the MU career record at the time of his graduation, and still ranks second on the school charts. Also served double-duty as a punt returner, and was MU's top return man in 1980, as the Tigers went 8-4 and played in the Liberty Bowl. Went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in the 1981 NFL Draft, and played six years in the league, three each with the Packers and the St. Louis Cardinals.

1981 - Brad Edelman, C

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Brad Edelman lettered as a standout center at Mizzou from 1978-81, and played on MU teams that appeared in four bowl games (1978 Liberty, 1979 Hall of Fame, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). He earned All-America status as a senior co-captain in 1981, in addition to earning All-Big Eight honors as a junior in 1980. A member of the Missouri All-Century Team, Edelman played in the Hula Bowl and Olympia Gold Bowl all-star games following the 1981 season. He went on to a solid professional football career, playing in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints from 1982-90 as an offensive guard. He was a Pro Bowl starter in 1987, and was a Pro-Bowl alternate in 1982-83-84-88. Edelman worked as an actor in Hollywood for a period of time after finishing his pro football career.

1981 - Jeff Gaylord, DT

A rugged defender who hailed from Overland Park, Kan., and lettered three years for Mizzou (1978-80-81), playing on MU teams that went to bowl games each year (1978 Liberty, 1980 Liberty and 1981 Tangerine). Won Big Eight Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors as a senior in 1981, making him to this day the only Tiger to win a conference defensive player of the year award. Was named All-Big Eight in 1981, and earned player of the game honors in MU's 1981 Tangerine Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi. Following his senior season, Gaylord played in the Blue-Gray Game, East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams, Toronto Argonauts and in the USFL, from 1982-85. He also was a professional wrestler for several years following his retirement from football.

1983 - Conrad Goode, OT

An offensive tackle with good Tiger bloodlines, whose father, Conrad Hitchler, was an All-American end at MU in 1962. A native of St. Louis, Mo., Goode lettered at MU from 1980-83 and played on Missouri teams that appeared in three bowl games (1980 Liberty, 1981 Tangerine, 1983 Holiday). As a senior co-captain, earned All-America honors, in addition to being named All-Big Eight. He played in the prestigious East-West Shrine all-star game following his senior season, and went on to play in the National Football League with the New York Giants (1984-85) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1987-89). Following his football playing days, became a successful actor in Hollywood, where he still works today.

1986 - John Clay, OT

An earth-moving offensive tackle, John Clay was a St. Louis, Mo., native who earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 1986. He lettered four years for Mizzou, from 1983-86, and was a first-team All-Big Eight selection in 1984-85-86, joining former standouts Johnny Roland, Gary Lane and Phil Bradley as MU's only three-time all-league honorees in the Big Eight era. A team co-captain in 1986, Clay ended his collegiate career by playing in the prestigious Blue-Gray Game and East-West Shrine Game. He went on to become a first-round draft pick by the Los Angeles Raiders of the National Football League in 1987. He was later traded to the San Diego Chargers in 1988, but a back injury prematurely ended his promising career.

1998 - Devin West, TB

He might have come to Mizzou from nearby Moberly, Mo., without much fanfare, but Devin West became one of the top running backs in school history before his playing days were done. Lettering for four years (1995-98), West ended his career as MU's No. 2 all-time career rusher, with 2,954 yards, and now stands number five. He would rank as MU's all-time leader if bowl games were counted in career totals during his day. Was a first-team All-American running back (MU's first since Bob Steuber in 1942) as a senior in 1998, who helped lead Mizzou to an 8-4 season and a win over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl – MU's first bowl win since 1981. He rushed for 125 yards in the game. Rushed for an MU single-season record 1,578 yards in 1998, which ranked him fifth in the nation. Included in that total was a dominant 319-yard, two-touchdown rushing day against arch rival Kansas for Homecoming in 1998. Played in the Senior Bowl following the 1998 season, and was a semi-finalist for the prestigious Doak Walker Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top running back.

1999 - Rob Riti, C

One of the best centers to ever play the game for Mizzou, Riti won first-team All-America honors as a senior in 1999, and became one of only seven Tigers to earn consensus All-America first-team honors. He was a key figure in MU rushing attacks that ranked among the nation's top 10 statistically three times. Started a then-MU-record 44 consecutive games from 1996-99, and helped pave the way for tailback Devin West to an All-America year in 1998 as the Tigers won their first bowl game since 1981, with a victory over West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl. Was one of the strongest Tigers to ever don the Black and Gold, as he was the first MU player to record a 900-lb. squat lift in 1998, then topped that with a school-record 1,000-lb. lift in 1999. He made the Rams practice squad as an undrafted free agent in 2000.

2000 - Justin Smith, DE

A first-team All-American as a junior who was virtually unstoppable, despite constant double-and even triple-teaming efforts by Tiger opponents. A fierce competitor with a tireless motor who left holding the MU career quarterback sack record, with 22.5 in just three years (now ranks second). Broke the MU single-season sack record in his junior year, recording 11 on his own. A native of Holts Summit, Mo., Smith declared for the NFL Draft after his stellar junior season, and became the fourth overall pick of the 2001 NFL Draft, by the Cincinnati Bengals, who he led in sacks each of his first two seasons in the league. Made an instant impression, as he became the first true freshman to start every game since 1986, when he started all 12 contests in 1998. Was a key factor for MU's defense that year that saw the Tigers earn their first bowl win since 1981, as they defeated West Virginia in the Insight.com Bowl.

2007 - Martin Rucker, TE

The top pass-catching tight end in Mizzou history, Rucker won consensus first-team All-America honors as a senior in 2007 when he caught 84 passes for 834 yards and eight touchdowns in helping lead Mizzou to a 12-2 season and its first-ever Big 12 North Division title and a final No. 4 Associated Press ranking. Rucker was a vital part of the rebuilding of the Tiger program, and served as a leader and visual aid of the hard work and dedication needed to get the program back in the national scene. Rucker ended his Tiger career with a then-MU-record 203 receptions, 2,175 yards and 18 TDs, as he started in an MU-record 50 consecutive games from 2004-07. His 84 catches in 2007 broke the MU single-season record, as well.

2007, 2008 - Jeremy Maclin, All-Purpose

After missing the 2006 season due to a knee injury, redshirt freshman Jeremy Maclin burst onto the scene in record-setting fashion, and became MU's first-ever freshman to earn first-team All-America honors in 2007. He earned consensus first-team status by breaking the NCAA single-season freshman record for all-purpose yards, as he amassed a whopping 2,776 yards – including 1,055 receiving, 1,039 kickoff return, 375 rushing and 307 punt return. Maclin scored 16 touchdowns in all to become one of the most dynamic players in all of college football, with nine scores coming on receptions, four on the ground, two via punt returns and one on a kickoff return – the latter was an historic 99-yard kickoff return for score at Kansas State that was MU's first since 1982. He was the only player in Division I in 2007 to score touchdowns in all four all-purpose categories. He repeated with consensus first-team All-America honors in 2008 as he led the NCAA in all-purpose yardage (202.36 ypg) and broke MU single-season receiving records with 102 receptions, 1,260 yards and 13 TDs. In just two years, he broke the MU record for career all-purpose yardage, with 5,609 yards. He closed his career with Offensive MVP honors in the 2008 Alamo Bowl, as he returned a punt for TD and caught the game-winning TD pass from Chase Daniel in MU's 30-23 overtime win. Maclin chose to bypass his final two years of collegiate eligibility and entered the 2009 NFL Draft, where he was taken with the No. 19 overall selection in the first round by the Philadelphia Eagles.

2008 - Chase Coffman, TE

Despite missing two games late in the year with a foot injury, Coffman established himself as the top tight end in all of college football, and won consensus first-team All-America honors, marking the second straight year MU tight ends earned that distinction. Coffman surpassed former teammate Martin Rucker as MU's top pass-catching tight end of all-time, as he had 90 receptions in 2008 for 987 yards and 10 touchdowns. His play in 2008 not only earned him All-America honors, but earned him the John Mackey Award, which annually goes to the nation's top tight end. That made Coffman the first Tiger in history to win a national individual award given to a specific position group. Coffman ended his career holding Mizzou records for receptions (247) and touchdowns (30), and was second all-time in receiving yards (2,659). He went on to become a third-round draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2009 NFL Draft.

2009 - Danario Alexander, WR

Overcoming huge odds against him, Danario Alexander turned in a record-smashing senior season in 2009 to become the nation's leading receiver, and took home All-America honors in the process. Coming into his senior year, Alexander hadn't even earned honorable-mention All-Big 12 status, thanks mostly to the fact that his first three years were impacted by a string of unfortunate knee injuries. He was resolute in his determination to prove he belonged among the nation's elite receivers, and he did just that in 2009, as he burst onto the scene with an NCAA-best 137.0 yards per game average, which included an MU-record 1,781 yards, 14 touchdowns and 113 receptions. His yardage total was some 500 yards more than the previous record of 1,260 established in 2008 by Jeremy Maclin (in one fewer game, nonetheless), and it propelled Alexander to the top of the Mizzou career receiving yardage charts, with 2,778 (previous record was 2,704 by Justin Gage). He became only the fifth Tiger in history to lead the NCAA in an individual statistical category, and the first receiver since Hank Burnine led the country in 1955 with 44 receptions. Alexander had an MU-record nine 100-yard receiving games, including six straight to close the season. Included in that string were three 200-yard performances in a four-game stretch (214 vs. Baylor, 200 at Kansas State, 173 vs. Iowa State and 233 vs. Kansas). For his career, Alexander finished with 191 receptions for 2,778 yards and 22 touchdowns.

2009 - Grant Ressel, PK

One of the more amazing stories to come out of college football during the 2009 season had to do with the previously unheralded sophomore walk-on kicker Grant Ressel, who rose from unknown status to become one of the nation's top kickers. Ressel began fall camp second on the depth chart as the Tigers looked to replace Jeff Wolfert, who left after the 2008 season holding the NCAA career record for combined kick accuracy. With those rather large shoes to fill, Ressel was named the starting kicker the week of the 2009 season opener, and proceeded to put together an amazing season which earned him All-America status. All he did was set an NCAA single-season combined kick accuracy record, as he connected on a combined 98.5% (65-of-66) of his kicks, including 26-of-27 field goals and 39-of-39 on extra points. He also led the NCAA in field goal percentage among those with 13 or more attempts (96.3%) and finished third nationally with 2.00 field goals made per game. He also etched his name firmly forever into the hearts of Tiger fans young and old, thanks to his game-winning 27-yard field goal as time expired to beat rival Kansas, 41-39, in Kansas City's Arrowhead Stadium to end the 2009 regular season and give Mizzou its eighth win of the year.

2010 - Michael Egnew, TE

After catching a grand total of seven balls combined in his first two years in the program, junior TE Michael Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010 when he won consensus first-team All-America honors, thanks to a 90-reception season that included 762 yards and five touchdowns. His 90 catches were the most in the nation among all tight ends, and it tied former Tiger standout Chase Coffman (a 2008 consensus All-American tight end) for the MU single-season receptions record among tight ends. Egnew, who was a finalist for the John Mackey Tight End Award, became the third Tiger tight end to win consensus first-team All-America honors in four years (2007-10).

2013 - Michael Sam, DE

After beginning his career at Mizzou by earning freshman All-America honors, rush end Michael Sam finished with a flurry, as he became only the second Tiger in history to win unanimous All-America honors during a magical senior season. Sam was a disruptive force rarely seen – even for a program like Mizzou that produces standout defensive linemen on a regular basis – as he led the Southeastern Conference and ranked 19th nationally in tackles for loss (19.0), while he was second in the league and 14th nationally with an MU single-season record-tying 11.5 QB sacks. Sam had a trio of three-sack games (Arkansas State, Vanderbilt and Florida), to get his name in the national conversation, and he capped his career with a bang as he got a trademark sack/fumble in the final minute of the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl that was picked up and returned by teammate Shane Ray for a game-clinching touchdown in the 41-31 win over former conference rival Oklahoma State. Sam would finish his Tiger career ranked fourth all-time on the sacks list, with 21.0.

2014 - Shane Ray, DE

Shane Ray kept the #DLineZou bus rolling, as he made it two consecutive SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, and won consensus first-team All-America status for an eye-opening 2014 season as he helped lead the Tigers to an 11-3 mark and a second-straight SEC Eastern Division title. Ray made play after play in opposing offenses' backfield, as he broke the Mizzou single-season quarterback sacks record, with 14.5 (breaking the old mark of 11.5 from former standouts Aldon Smith and Michael Sam). He also led the team with 22.5 tackles for loss, finishing third in the NCAA in sacks and fifth in TFLs, while he led the SEC in both categories. Ray ended his junior campaign with 65 tackles, a team-best three forced fumbles and five pass break-ups. Ray chose to bypass his final year of eligibility to enter the 2015 NFL Draft, and that decision paid off when he was taken with the No. 23 overall selection in the first round by the Denver Broncos.

2014 - Marcus Murphy, Special Teams

One of the most electrifying all-purpose men to ever play for Mizzou, Murphy became a first-team All-American in his senior season of 2014 as he ranked sixth nationally in kickoff returns (29.6 avg.) and 11th in punt returns (10.4 avg.) while he also took home the Southeastern Conference Special Teams Player of the Year award. Murphy, who was a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award as a senior, led the SEC with his 1,921 all-purpose yards and was the only player in FBS in 2014 to score a touchdown via a kickoff return, punt return, rush and pass reception. He broke the Mizzou career record for combined kick return yardage, and had a game to remember at Florida in 2014, when he took the opening kickoff back 96 yards for a touchdown, and later in the same game returned a punt 82 yards for a score. Finished the season with 924 rushing yards, 212 receiving yards, 281 punt return yards and 504 kick return yards, and was instrumental in MU's 33-17 Citrus Bowl victory over Minnesota, as he ran for a career-high 157 yards.

2015 - Kentrell Brothers, LB

A student of the game who parlayed his penchant for video study – along with his relentless work ethic and outstanding instincts for the game – into first-team All-America status as a senior in 2015 when he led the nation in tackles (12.67 per game) for a Tiger defense that was ranked among the nation's best in several categories (fifth in points allowed [16.2 ppg]; fifth in passing defense [169.3 ypg]; sixth in total defense [302.0 ypg]). Finished his final season as a Tiger by racking up 152 tackles in just 12 games, while he also led the nation with three blocked kicks during the season. He tallied 12.0 tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks in 2015, while adding a pair of interceptions as well. Finished his career with 358 total tackles, which ranks eighth on the all-time Mizzou tackles chart.

RETIRED NUMBERS

#N/A - Ed 'Brick' Travis

From St. Charles, Mo., Travis starred for the Tigers as a tackle in 1919-20 earning All-Missouri Valley Conference honors both years. He went on to play professional football with Rock Island (Ill.) in 1921, and the St. Louis All-Stars in 1923. He was inducted into the State of Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1972, and the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1974. He was a member of the University's first Intercollegiate Athletic Committee. Players did not have numbers when Brick played, but he was added to Mizzou's wall of honor in 2019.

#23 - Johnny Roland

Johnny Roland undoubtedly was the biggest recruiting catch by Dan Devine during his 13 years as football coach at the University of Missouri.

Roland, of Corpus Christi, Texas, was Ol' Mizzou's leading rusher and scorer as a sophomore in 1962 with 830 yards and 78 points, respectively. However, he specialized primarily as a defensive back in his junior and senior seasons.

Capping MU's 1965 Sugar Bowl season, Roland was a consensus first-team All-American on defense. Yet, Devine utilized the 6-2, 207-pound athlete's talents to the fullest — often inserting Roland as a ball-carrier and a blocking back whenever the Tigers penetrated their opponent's 20-yard line. He also returned punts.

Roland shared the captaincy of the '65 team and became Mizzou's first back to win All-America laurels in 23 years. He went on to win NFL Rookie-of-the-Year with the St. Louis Cardinals, and went on to a long career as a backfield coach in the NFL. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1998.

#23 - Roger Wehrli

When it came to game-winning plays, MU's Roger Wehrli had few peers. Although stationed in the defensive backfield, the Tigers' highly-regarded Wehrli played major offensive roles in many MU victories during his career. Iowa State could testify to that. In 1966, Wehrli started the Tigers' 23-7 victory by returning the game-opening kickoff 96 yards for a TD. In the Tigers' 42-7 Homecoming win over ISU in '68, Wehrli put on a magnificent show by returning six punts for 149 yards — one a 54-yarder. The King City native set up four of the Tigers' six TDs. A week before, the 6-0, 184-pounder set a MU record by intercepting three Oklahoma State passes.

A consensus All-American in 1968, and the nation's leading punt returner, Wehrli broke school and Big Eight punt return records during his career. He went on to a standout career with the St. Louis Cardinals and was a perennial All-Pro selection. Wehrli was enshrined into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004, and later was also enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2006.

#27 - Brock Olivo

Brock Olivo came to Mizzou with modest fanfare, but thanks to his legendary work ethic, he became one of the great inspirational players in school history.

A native of Washington, Mo., Olivo helped restore pride to his home state program that had fallen on hard times when he led the Tigers to the 1997 Holiday Bowl – MU's first bowl appearance since 1983.

Olivo made his mark at tailback and on special teams during a career that spanned from 1994-97. He left as the school's all-time leading rusher, with 3,026 yards, and his 188 points ranked him fourth on the career scoring list. Olivo became the first Tiger to rush for 200 yards in a game twice, doing so during his sophomore season with a 222-yard outing against Northeast Louisiana and following with a 201-yard day against Iowa State later in the year.

The Big Eight Conference Offensive Freshman of the Year in 1994, Olivo went on to ensure his spot in Tiger Football history when he won the Mosi Tatupu National Special Teams Player of the Year Award in 1997 – making him the first Tiger to ever win a national individual award.

#37 - Bob Steuber

More than 50 years after hanging up his competitive cleats at Missouri, Bob Steuber still ranks as the Tigers' 17th-best ground-gainer of all time. Steuber was the big, fast back — a 210-pounder who could turn the 100 in 10-flat — who made Don Faurot's new-fangled Split-T formation such a rousing success in 1941 and '42. Switched from end to halfback as a junior and finished as the nation's number-three rusher in 1941, and the rushing runner-up in 1942. His career total was 2,030 yards, which stood as the Mizzou record for 28 years, until surpassed by Joe Moore in 1970. He still holds the Missouri record for highest average per carry in a career (7.4), while his record of most career points (222) stood until 1992.

All-America in 1942, Steuber was drafted by the Chicago Bears, but entered the service, and later played professionally with the Cleveland Browns, L.A. Dons and Buffalo Bills.

#42 - Darold Jenkins

A center-linebacker for Don Faurot's 1940 and '41 Tiger teams, Darold Jenkins was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1976. He captained the '41 Tiger club that was considered to be the best of Faurot's 19 Missouri teams, and went to the Sugar Bowl.

A native of Higginsville, Mo., Jenkins was named to 17 All-America teams in 1941. He later was a bomber pilot in World War II, and on his 27th mission was shot down. He spent 17 months in a German POW camp.

After discharge from the service, he served as trial counsel for the State Highway Commission. He died in 1986.

#44 - Paul Christman

"Pitchin" Paul Christman set virtually all of the passing records at Mizzou, most of which stood intact for nearly 40 years.

Christman won All-America honors in 1939 and '40 and was MU's first player to be inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. He is the only Mizzou player (until 2007) to finish among the top five in Heisman Trophy voting, as he finished third in 1939 and fifth in 1940.

Following his career, during which he led the Tigers to their first conference championship and bowl appearance under Don Faurot, Christman served in the U.S. Navy from 1941-45.

He played four years of pro football with the Chicago Cardinals ('46-49) and finished with the Green Bay Packers in 1950. He was an accomplished network television analyst and commentator, teaming with Curt Gowdy on early AFL telecasts. A native of St. Louis, he died suddenly at the age of 51, in 1970.

#83 - Kellen Winslow

An All-American on and off the field, Kellen Winslow may be the greatest tight end ever to play the game. At MU, he was a two-time all-league choice and a consensus All-American as a senior. But the 28 passes he caught for 479 yards and six TDs in 1978 were just the tip of the iceberg.

During a nine-year career with San Diego, Winslow starred with Dan Fouts and Charlie Joiner in the most prolific passing attack ever unleashed on NFL gridirons. He caught 541 passes for 6,741 yards and scored 45 TDs. He's best remembered for a '81 playoff game against the Miami Dolphins, when he caught 13 passes and blocked a FG with :04 remaining to send the game into OT. San Diego went on to win, 41-38.

Winslow was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, in 1995, and was a 2003 inductee into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, and was honored in 2004 as an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award Winner. An attorney, Winslow previously worked as part of the Mizzou Radio team, and later served as the athletic director at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis., and then at Florida A&M.

HOMECOMING HISTORY

MU'S FIRST HOMECOMING GAME

Legend says that the Homecoming tradition got its start at the University of Missouri in 1911, thanks to the vision and efforts of Chester L. Brewer, MU's Director of Athletics. Although other schools make similar claims to being the originators of the tradition, Missouri certainly was among the first to hold a Homecoming football game.

That year, the Missouri-Kansas game was to be played on a college campus for the first time. Previously, the game had been played in either Kansas City or St. Joseph, and Missouri trailed in the series by a 12-5-3 count.

Brewer wanted to add some spice to the season-ending game in Columbia, so he issued a plea to Mizzou alumni and especially to former Tiger football players to "Come Home" for the game. They did, with a record crowd of 9,000 overflowing Rollins Field.

With four minutes to play, and MU trailing by three, Tiger captain Glen Shuck booted a tying field goal from a difficult angle. Then, little Billy Blees caught a rampaging KU fullback in the open field in the final seconds to preserve the tie, and was carried off the field.

Hence, "Homecoming" was born. MU has a 63-40-5 record in Homecoming games. Not surprisingly, Kansas has been the most common Homecoming opponent 27 times — with MU leading in those games, 18-7-2, although the two clubs did not meet on Homecoming from 1960 until 2000.

(NOTE — The passing efficiency formula has been used by the NCAA since 1979 to rate quarterbacks. The formula assumes that touchdowns are as good as interceptions are bad; therefore, these two figures offset each other for the average player. To determine Efficiency Rating Points, multiply a passer's yards per attempt by 8.4, add his completion percentage, add his touchdown percentage times 3.3, then subtract his interception percentage times two. 100 points is considered average.)
